Baptism of the Lord

Jesus, whom God called “my beloved Son,” is also the “servant” of whom Isaiah speaks in the first reading. We who are baptized in Christ must follow His example and use our time and resources in the service of God and neighbor.

The privilege of our Church is such that it is never stronger than when it is attacked, never better known than when it is accused, never more powerful than when it appears forsaken.”

St. Hilary of Poitiers (310-367), Doctor of the Church, Feast Day January 13

Parish Prayer

Almighty God, my parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly, if I am friendly. Its pews will be filled, if I help fill them. My parish will do great work, if I work with my parish. It will make generous gifts to many just causes, if I am a generous giver. It will welcome other people to our worship and fellowship, if I invite and welcome them. It will be a church of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, and a church with a noble spirit, if I am filled with these same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I shall dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless our journey together, Lord God. Amen!

IN OUR PARISH COMMUNITY

The Baptism of the Lord

Reflections:

Today, we celebrate the feast of the baptism of our Lord. The Christmas season comes to an end with the feast of the Baptism of Our Lord and today's feast marks the beginning of Jesus' public ministry.

The baptism of our Lord reminds us of two important points. First, it reminds of our identity. It reminds us of who we are and Whose we are. By Baptism we become sons and daughters of God, brothers and sisters of Jesus, members of his Church, heirs of heaven and temples of the Holy Spirit.

Secondly, Jesus' baptism reminds us also of our mission: a) to experience the presence of God within us, to acknowledge our own dignity as God's children, and to appreciate the Divine Presence in others by honoring them, loving them, and serving them in all humility; and to live as the children of God in thought, word and action.

Today is a day for each of us to thank God for the graces we have received in Baptism, to renew our Baptismal promises and let us pray to the Lord for the grace to preach Christ's 'Good News' by our transparent Christian lives of love, mercy, service and forgiveness.

As I am in India on a vacation, please know that I miss you all so much and you all are in my thoughts and prayers.

May God bless you all,
Fr. Christian Raj, O. Praem
