SUNDAY'S READINGS

FIRST READING:
God put Abraham to the test.
(Gn 22:1)

PSALM:
I will walk before the Lord,
in the land of the living. (Ps 116)

SECOND READING:
If God is for us, who can be against us?
(Rom 8:31)

GOSPEL:
"This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."
(Mk 9:7)

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

REFLECT

FIRST READING
God's request of Abraham to sacrifice his beloved son Isaac seems cruel from our modern perspective. Yet Abraham's obedience rendered divine blessings. Do you think you have such depth of faith?

SECOND READING
Paul tries to reassure the Christians in Rome of God's divine providence in our lives. As we continue the Lenten journey, can you recall when have you felt God's protection and comfort?

GOSPEL READING
We hear Mark's account of the apostles' witness of the transfiguration of Jesus. How difficult do you think it was for them not to share this event with anyone until after Jesus rose from the dead?

2ND SUNDAY OF LENT ©LPi

THANK YOU!

This week we received a check for over $500 from WaterStone Bank (WSB) for its annual distribution of their Charitable Checking Program. This year's award is the largest we have received from WSB since the program was instituted.

We'd like to take this opportunity to thank WSB and our parishioners who bank at WSB who made this grant possible.

If you or someone you know bank at WaterStone Bank, please be sure to call Carol Carey, the Community President at 414-459-4302 and specify Saint Bernard Congregation as your Charitable Checking designee. As always, thank you for your support.

BETTER MEALS IN MADAGASCAR

In Madagascar, half of all children are undernourished. That means 50% of kids won't grow to reach their full potential. Imagine if that was one of your children! But communities are changing this by focusing on improving health and nutrition. What role has food played in your life? How can you help those who lack access to enough nutritious food?

Watch the video on this Madagascar family. Visit crsricebowl.org to learn more.

Donations to CRS Rice Bowl can be made at the stbernardparish.org under "Giving Opportunities."
