FROM THE RECTORY

Fr. Steve Petrica

One Week: One New Bishop, Three New Priests

Tuesday morning, June 25, the Most Rev. Donald J. Hying was installed as the fifth Bishop of Madison. Less than 80 hours later he ordained three new priests for the diocese.

Not many weeks are that eventful! May all four new ministries bring glory to God and blessing to the people of our diocese.

Parish Festival Final Wrap-Up

The accounts have been tallied and the results are in. Through the generosity of parishioners and friends of St. Bernadette's, we netted $7,175.73! That constitutes a significant deposit to the parish account, and I am very grateful to everyone who made it happen.

Prayer for a Suffering Church

This prayer was written by Robert Barron, Auxiliary Bishop of Los Angeles. It appears in his recently-published booklet, "Letter to a Suffering Church: A Bishop Speaks on the Sexual Abuse Crisis."

Lord Jesus Christ, through your Incarnation you accepted a human nature and lived a real, human life. Setting aside the glory of your divinity, you met us face to face in the vulnerability of our humanity.

Though without sin, you accepted sinners, offering forgiveness and placing yourself before even the most unworthy as a servant and a friend. You became small and weak in the estimation of the powerful, so that you might elevate to glory the small and weak of the world.

Your descent into our nature was not without risk, as it exposed you to the assaults of the darkest and most terrifying of humanity's fallen desires—our cruelty and narrowness, our deception and our denials. All this culminated in the cross, where your divine love was met with the full fury of our malice, our violence, and our estrangement from your grace.

You offered yourself to us with innocence and receptivity, and this was met with the abuse of your body, humiliation and mockery, betrayal and isolation, torture and death. All this—even the dereliction of feeling abandoned by God—you accepted. You became a victim, so that all those victimized since the beginning of the world would know you as their advocate. You went into the darkness, so that all those compelled into the dark by human wickedness would discover in you a radiant light.

Grant we pray, O Lord, healing for all victims of sexual abuse. Purify your Church of corruption. Bring justice to those who have been wronged. Grant consolation to all who are afflicted. Cast your light to banish the shadows of deception. Manifest to all your advocacy of those who have been so cruelly hurt, and your judgment upon those who, having perpetrated such crimes, remain unrepentant. Compel those in your Church whom you have entrusted to safeguard the innocent and act on behalf of the victims to be vigilant and zealous in their duties. Restore faith to those from whom it has been stolen, and hope to those who have despaired.

Christ the Victim, we call out to you! Strengthen your faithful to accept the mission placed before us, a mission of holiness and truth. Inspire us to become advocates of those who have been harmed. Grant us strength to fight for justice. Impart to us courage so that we might forthrightly face the challenges to come. Raise up saints from your Church, and grant us the grace to become the saints you desire us to be. This we ask of you, who live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

On the Cover

A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead. Now by chance a priest was going down that road; and when he saw him he passed by on the other side. So likewise a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan, as he journeyed, came to where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion, and went to him and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine; then he set him on his own beast and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And the next day he took out two denarii and gave them to the innkeeper, saying, "Take care of him; and whatever more you spend, I will repay you when I come back."

—Luke 10:30-35

Key Events on the Bible Timeline #29
Covenant in Moab: Deuteronomy 29:1-29

At this point we're nearing the end of Deuteronomy, the end of the Pentateuch/Torah (the five books traditionally ascribed to Moses), and the end of Moses' life. He summons all Israel — the verb used suggests that he is solemnly convening the people — to a fresh covenant to stand alongside the one made at Mount Sinai. They are nearing the end of their forty-year exodus, and their generation has witnessed the deliverance, the fidelity, and the providence of God. Now they are called to reaffirm and renew the covenant whereby God makes them his people and they acknowledge him as their God.

A key thought is in verses 14-15: "Nor is it with you only that I make this sworn covenant, but with him who is not here with us this day." Rabbinic teaching on this passage is that all unborn generations were already standing there at Mount Sinai.

We might say that we Gentiles, too, were among those "already standing there," and that we have been adopted into the people of God. We are summoned week by week to stand, as it says in the letter to the Hebrews (12:24), in the presence of Jesus, the mediator of the "new and eternal covenant," and "[whose] sprinkled blood speaks more graciously than the blood of Abel."
