J.M.J.
Fr. Patrick

Mass on Palm Sunday is unsettling. The reality is from the very high to the lowest low. We hear a Gospel to open Mass with the jubilant and hope-filled reception of Jesus to Jerusalem and then have the reading of the Passion and Death of Christ. If it is unsettling that would be due to straining your ear to hear the story and staring by the eye of your mind to picture the reality of those monumental Mediterranean days. The Palm Sunday liturgy is a one-hour clashing of the most extreme, the human-divine drama, from our celebration of Jesus as victor to the desolation of the beloved Son on the Cross.

We would like to praise Jesus in some way that made us feel it was real, praise him in some new full-hearted way. We would like to praise him and receive him in a manner that feels powerful. If we do reach that state of lively and vibrant praise, it would be a spiritual experience unlike what we are ever used to, even if it is only momentary. But we are feeble in our worship. Feeble, dull, and tired. Palm Sunday begins with a grand welcome to Jesus into his city. The city is awakened to his holy glory, awakened to praise him.

Then his Passion.

The dark is overwhelming. He experiences the darkness, the violence, the uncivilized tyranny of rejection. And then brute pain. The disciples couldn't stand to see it and they didn't. And I would have gotten clear away from it. Most of you would too. But the Palm Sunday Mass will not let us slink away and to try to ignore. We are positioned like children looking through the fence of the graveyard in cold fear. And we wonder what comes next after the absolute stillness and silence.

Good Friday Collection 2022 • April 15

Help us continue to serve those who need help in the Holy Land

Christians of the Holy Land rely heavily on the help that comes to them from the Pontifical Good Friday Collection.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born.

When you contribute to this collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Please be generous!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit myfranciscan.org

A collection will be taken on Good Friday to support the Holy Land. Make checks payable to St. Agnes Parish.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

Hailed one moment and rejected the next. This seems to be the pattern that repeats itself not only throughout history but in our own lives as well. Jesus wants to be triumphantly welcomed into our hearts with joy! And welcome him we do! Then come the times when we do exactly the opposite and we reject the teachings of the Gospel and turn our backs on God's friendship. The one who at one time is a friend now becomes an enemy. Jesus understands our ambivalence. He lived it on the way to the cross. Understanding the full array of human emotion, God accepts us where we are. There is a great deal of drama on the road to Calvary. Our lives can be dramatic as well. In all of those whirlwind moments it can be difficult to find God's presence and understand his will. We walk with Jesus this week seeking inspiration and hope, the essential keys needed to unlock the door to God's presence in our lives.
