Risen, Ascended...and Come Holy Spirit

If you're like most Catholics, it's hard to keep track of when Easter falls, when Ascension (Thursday or Sunday?) arrives and when exactly does Pentecost and the Holy Spirit come?

Let's start with Easter. In 325 AD, the Council of Nicaea decreed that Easter should be observed the first Sunday following the first full moon after the spring equinox (March 21). Simple, right?

The date therefore, is movable and can fall anywhere between March 22nd and April 25th. Forty-six days before that is Ash Wednesday. Wait...isn't Lent 40 days? Yes, but Sundays don't count.

The Ascension of our Lord is 40 days later...but not really. It's 39 days to Ascension Thursday but the traditional date in most US Dioceses is celebrated the following Sunday...this year on May 29th...42 days after Easter.

Then it gets easier...Pentecost (*meaning 50) and the arrival of the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, is always TEN days after the Ascension.

It can be confusing to be a Catholic at times!

But it's worth the wait. The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Holy Trinity brings peace and Grace to our lives and helps us answer God's universal call to holiness.

When we abandon ourselves to be led by the Holy Spirit, he raises us little by little and guides us. At the beginning, we may not even be able to tell, slowly, a light shines within and allows us to see all our actions are directed toward God. Father Louis Lallemand, a 17th century Priest of the Society of Jesus calls this a purification of the heart and a detachment of the will.

He speaks of three steps:

Faithfully obeying God's wishes as far as we know them.

Frequently renewing the resolution to follow God's will. It takes an act of will on our part to leave our will behind!

Asking the Holy Spirit for the light and the strength to accomplish God's will to the best of our ability.

Now that we have the calendar straight...come Holy Spirit come!

May God Bless you.

Deacon Greg

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the Week

St. Josemaria Escriva tell us, "To live according to the Holy Spirit means to live by faith and hope and charity. To allow God to take possession of our lives and to change our hearts, to make us resemble him more and more." Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given freely by God to us. The Holy Spirit is the very breath of God and the true source of our power and strength. When we accept that God is the beginning and the end of all things, we open ourselves to receiving this powerful presence. The Holy Spirit alone is the one who teaches us how to pray, who stirs us to lift our eyes to heaven in search of our Creator and opens them to recognize the wonderful gifts of faith, hope, and love God gives us. The Holy Spirit is the one who teaches us how to understand ourselves, God, others, and the world. When we allow God's Own breath to truly take possession of us, we realize that we are meant to become like God and know Him as He really is. This ultimate helper lifts our eyes from what is below to what is above and empowers us to live life with joy and keener vision!

Pope Francis' Intention

We pray for Christian families around the world; may they embody and experience unconditional love and advance in holiness in their daily lives.

Bishop Ricken's Intention

That our encounter with Jesus Christ in the Most Blessed Sacrament may transform our hearts to greater union with Him and the Church and that our journey into Eucharistic Revival renew our entire Diocese.

Prayer to the Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of the Church

O God, Father of mercies, whose Only Begotten Son, as he hung upon the Cross, chose the Blessed Virgin Mary, his Mother, to be our Mother also, grant, we pray, that with her loving help your Church may be more fruitful day by day and, exulting in the holiness of her children, may draw to her embrace all the families of the peoples.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen
