SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

J.M.J.
Fr. Patrick

I am very happy to announce that our new Coordinator for Religious Education is our parishioner Donna Schuld. Donna has been a member of St. Agnes for ten years and has been contributing to the parish in a number of ways- as a lector at Mass, as the Trustee-Secretary for the last year, parish council, and co-managing the parish website, and participating in other events. She has a love for the parish and her Faith. Donna took on planning the summer Festival for this year and is working hard on that planning along with her husband Jason. She spoke last weekend and this Sunday about festival needs so this is a good chance for me to also request for your Festival assistance. Donna has been a catechist for about ten years so she has that background which prepares her in many ways to move into the coordinator position. She knows our parish, knows the program, many of the families, the catechists, and our other two wonderful R.E. staff- Lisa Urick and Maureen Nesvacil.

Thank you Donna! Welcome to the staff and God bless! We are grateful for all your goodness for the parish.

Next weekend is the annual Missionary Appeal. Fr. Maurice Mmegbuadimma will be here to celebrate all the Masses and preach on the needs of the missions. Fr. Maurice has been in our diocese for several years, first as an assistant in a parish and for the last few years as chaplain at the hospitals in Green Bay. Some of you may have met him when you were in the hospital as he visited, prayed, and anointed patients. Fr. Maurice represents the Diocese of Ahiara in Nigeria. This past Pentecost there was a horrible massacre at St. Francis Xavier Church in southwestern Nigeria with around 50 people killed and more than 110 injured. This past weekend there were more churches attacked and kidnappings. God bless Nigeria with peace and the safety of all. Please give Fr. Maurice a nice welcome!

The art on this week's cover is an ancient icon of Ss. Peter and Paul. It is their feast day this Wednesday, June 29th. St. Augustine said: "Both apostles share the same feast day, for these two were one; and even though they suffered on different days, they were as one. Peter went first, and Paul followed. And so we celebrate this day made holy for us by the apostles' blood."

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

God calls us in the midst of ordinary things. Often only looking for God in the dramatic, spectacular, the ritual or the sacred places, we miss that He is walking beside us. Every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling to us, “Follow me.” Sometimes, we are too distracted to hear this call. Other times, we would rather ignore it or pretend it wasn’t heard. God, however, is very persistent. Whether we fine tune our hearing to receive this invitation now or when we close our eyes in death, we need to make a choice. The choice involves leaving some things behind and moving forward, taking risks. Choosing to keep focused and single-minded, the lens we then use to see our world and one another is God’s, not our own. Life is no longer about what is important or matters to me but what matters to God. We acquire a new filter and are asked to use that filter to make choices, establish priorities, and determine what direction we will take, and how to love. Once we accept God’s invitation, we cannot keep looking back to what was left behind, only forward to the surprises yet to come.
