Fr. Patrick

The Feast of the Assumption is celebrated on August 15th. It honors the assumption of Mother Mary into heaven body and soul. Pope Pius XII solemnly defined in "Munificentissimus Deus" on Nov. 1, 1950, that the "Immaculate Mother of God, the ever-virgin Mary, having completed the course of her earthly life, was assumed body and soul into heavenly glory." Now, simply because it was only given as officially defined teaching so recently does not mean that it was only recently believed. This understanding of Mary's passage to heaven was a long held belief. In her earliest history, the Church was very occupied with defining her teaching of Jesus as the Eternal Son of God, that He is one person with two natures. Jesus is the second person of the Trinity who has both a human nature and a divine nature. From this the Church bestowed upon Mary titles such as Mother of God and the Immaculate Conception. These were a basis for the belief in her assumption. Since she carried within her Christ the Savior and gave him birth then it was proper that she was kept free by God of Original Sin. She was entirely pure because she was to receive in her womb the Christ-child. It was fitting then to believe that God would honor her by not letting her body become corrupt in the grave. Pope Pius cited several Church Fathers which showed how the teaching of her Assumption was already common and agreed on by early centuries. St. John Damascene (b. 675) said: "It was fitting that she who bore in her womb the creator become a babe should dwell in the divine mansion. It was fitting that the spouse of God be taken to the heavenly home."

Another factor that adds to our understanding of this is how dedicated early Christians are known to have been about rescuing, obtaining, and preserving sacred things, places and relics of the saints. A visitor on pilgrimage to Rome or the Holy Land will find this to be true. And yet there are no bodily relics of Mary for people to go and venerate anywhere.

Now this does not mean that the Church has taught that our Lady did not have a bodily death. People have inferred from the 1950 teaching of Pius's that Mary didn't die, and it may still be mistakenly thought and said to be the case. The fact that Mary did have a bodily death was also believed and taught by the early Fathers of the Church. St. Thomas Aquinas also taught the same. I can imagine some who are strongly devoted to Mary feeling a little uncomfortable about this, thinking that surely if Mary was assumed into heaven then she couldn't have died.

After all, we've seen all the classic art pieces that show her floating off to heaven very much awake and alive. Well, the art is imaginative. And while it does teach in its own ways, it's not source or the voice of Church teaching. So think of it this way: Jesus himself died. He who is God and took on human flesh did experience the totality of death. Would Mary be greater than him in not going through death? But rather we see in her life that she followed and united to him.

Car Hop-Drive Thru Thank You

Our St. Agnes Car Hop Drive-Thru was a soggy but fruitful event on Sunday, August 7. We were so impressed with our volunteers' willingness to put up with the relentless rain as they served customers in the drive-thru lanes and at the walk-up table. The St. Agnes Men's Club sold out of their booyah just after noon, which shows just how much people love this staple of our festival. Our burgers, brats, fries, and root beer floats sold well, too. Despite the weather, we were all in good spirits, working side-by-side, which is how it should be. We are so grateful to our core group of volunteers, who go above and beyond to make sure we have what we need. And we also appreciate everyone who signed up to help throughout the day. Thank you!

God Bless, Donna and Jason Schuld

CAR HOP FESTIVAL YARD SIGNS

Thank you for posting a yard sign at your home or business to promote our Car Hop festival.

The eastern Christian church speaks rather of her dormition, a falling asleep into death that preceded her Assumption.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church quotes the Byzantine Liturgy in saying that "in your Dormition you did not leave the world, O Mother of God, but were joined to the source of Life. You conceived the living God and, by your prayers, will deliver our souls from death" (No. 966).

The Assumption was a popular subject of Renaissance art in the 16th-17th centuries with it being painted by notable artists such as Titian, El Greco, Peter Paul Rubens. Their classical paintings and those of others would be the ones you are familiar with especially in calendars. This is another example of the belief in the Assumption being held long before 1950. But she has also been in other times, places, and cultures as is seen on the cover of this bulletin- a Chinese depiction of Mary's assumption (artist unknown.)

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

There is a “great cloud of witnesses” found in the official saints of the church and in ordinary people we meet every day. They are faith-filled inspirations who, by their example, help us to persevere in our faith. Living in a sea of conflict, change, challenge, and confusion, it is easy to grow tired and get weary. With so many things in competition for our attention, it is challenging to keep our eyes fixed on Jesus and the Kingdom of God. We have to keep running the race and continue proclaiming the Good News. This message is not always welcome. It can cause division, challenge accepted mindsets, ruffle peoples’ feathers, and cause some folks to become defensive. God’s ways are not always our ways. Even though often rejected by the world, the message of God in Jesus Christ must continue to be preached. We can rely on the examples of faith before us and around us and not lose heart. As Jesus endured the voices of opposition, so too can we.
