Happening in this world...

There has been an extreme persecution happening in Nicaragua. The largest country in Central America, borders Honduras, Costa Rica, the Caribbean Sea, and the Pacific Ocean. Daniel Ortega has been the President of Nicaragua since 2007. A leader of the Sandinistas in the 1980's, he had been the leader of Nicaragua from 1970-1990. His wife is Rosario Murillo who is also Vice-president and considered by some the power behind the presidency. Over the last several months the Ortega dictatorship has taken multiple actions restricting the Catholic Church and charities. I received a call from Unbound (formerly CFCA) informing me that my sponsorship of a young man would be ending as they no longer are permitted to do their mission in Nicaragua. Over 100 non-governmental organizations (NGO's), of the Church and otherwise, like Unbound have been denied the necessary registration to operate. Several Catholic radio stations have been closed and journalists have fled the country. One of the bishops, Bishop Rolando Alvarez was abducted and placed under house arrest, a group of priests, seminarians, and lay men were arrested and placed in prison in Managua named El Chipote that is known for torturing political opponents, and a number of nuns were expelled from the country.

Bold crowds have been protesting in Iran since the death of a 22-year-old woman Mahsa Amini on September 16. Amini died in a hospital in Tehran under suspicious circumstances after being arrested for not wearing the hijab (head covering) according to government regulations. At the police station she had a heart-attack and fell into a coma. Eyewitnesses claim Amini was beaten and therefore died from head injuries caused by police brutality. There have been periodic protests in Iran against the repressive government in 2009, 2017, and 2019. The current protests are larger and more widespread and Iranian security forces have been firing into the groups killing some and beating protesters with batons. Even still the protests persist. While Mahsa was Amini's legal given name (as only Persian names may be registered in Iran), her Kurdish name was Jina (also spelled Zhina), and was the name she was known as to her family.

One of our parishioners was posthumously honored by Bellin Hospital on September 19. A plaque for Mary Jane Bublitz was hung outside of the Intensive Care Unit in gratitude of Mary Jane's longtime volunteer service, more than 10,000 hours. Mary Jane was also a member of Bellin's Concerned Hearts Club for more than 30 years which provides support for those who have had heart surgery and for their families.

"When you are charitable you are sure of never being mistaken. Learn how to understand, to forgive, to be gracious. That's Christianity. By contrast, it is the way of the world to push, to parade, to use violence. That's all wrong. The force we possess is the truth and the charity of Jesus Christ."

a Catholic campaign to transform communities.

Dear Friends,

As missionary disciples we serve Christ in the world by serving others. Evangelization, powered by the Holy Spirit, must be made relevant and properly positioned within today's culture. Our mission to effectively proclaim the Good News must be informed by the need to grow in knowledge and understanding of all God's people.

Through your support of the one by One campaign you ensure the future of our parishes, enhance Catholic education, broaden social services and living justice programs and care for our seminarians. Help people of all ages experience the joy of knowing our Lord.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

To be humble means to see ourselves as we are. It comes with the recognition that we are never perfect, better than another, or free of sin. The humble person knows their faults and failings as well as their successes and triumphs. They also realize that they are nothing without God, especially God's mercy. The humble one knows who they are, who they can be, and how they have fallen short. Being desperately in love with God, they know how they have sometimes given in to their desires rather than God's will, almost with a sense of embarrassment. Being justified in our relationship with God is not about a list of the good things we do and the bad things we don't. We are vindicated when we realize how totally dependent we are upon God's gratuitous, abundant, and unconditional love. It is a gift we often take for granted and is often unappreciated.
