SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

Why I Keep Bringing My Kids To Mass

I have three little kids, and they have a lot of energy. Not a single one of them is the kind of toddler or preschooler who is happy sitting quietly beside their parent for an hour or more while they attend Mass. (But really, do those kids even exist?!)

That means that every Sunday morning and prior to our weekly trips to daily Mass, I feel a little nervous. There's the anticipation of worshipping God and receiving the Holy Eucharist mixed with a little dash of dread at the potential disaster of my children's behavior. An hour later we emerge from Mass feeling somewhere on a scale from "that-actually-wasn't-so-bad" to "maybe-we-should-switch-parishes-because-I-am-mortified".

So why do I put myself through this multiple times a week? I ask myself this question often. Our society would tell me to not bother, to just stop going and wait until my kids are older and more capable of sitting quietly and not throwing their shoes or running into the aisles or yelling "IS IT TIME TO GO YET?" But we Catholics know better than that.

First, Mass isn't "pointless" if I'm not spending the whole time in quiet and reverent contemplation. It's not a waste of our time. Even if it doesn't go the way we hoped, Mass is the best possible use of our time. And even if our focus is turned to a child who needs to use the potty, God knows we are there for love of Him.

Second, I'm teaching my kids a very important lesson. We don't skip Mass because going would be hard or inconvenient. We go to Mass no matter where we are or what's going on, because Mass is the number one priority. Nothing else in our life takes precedence over the worship of God and the sacrifice of the Holy Mass—not vacations, not a football game, and not because we have young, energetic children.

Third, God wants to see my family! "Jesus said, 'Let the children come to me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these'" (Matthew 19:14). Yes, Jesus wants to see your children even if they're squirmy and noisy. And even if someone at Mass is less than welcoming to your rambunctious family (though I hope that's not the case), never forget that God wants them to be there.

If you spend an hour every Sunday sweating and quietly praying that your kids will sit down and listen, you are in good company. I know what it's like to wonder why every other child is sitting nicely and yours are not (trust me, it's all in your head!). I just want to encourage you to keep on fighting the good fight and showing up for Mass every single week no matter how tough it might be sometimes. Never stop bringing your kids to Mass and never stop praying for them!

Archdiocese for the Military Services Collection

November 5 & 6, 2022

Next weekend our parish will take up a collection for the Archdiocese for the Military Services, USA. The AMS relies solely on private donors in support of its mission “serving those who serve” and its ministry to provide the same pastoral care and services to Catholics serving in all 6 branches of the US Armed Forces, as well as those enrolled in military academies and service members undergoing treatment at any of the VA Medical Centers. Currently serving from our Diocese are Fr. Michael Dory in the US Navy Chaplain Corps, Fr. Matt Faucett begins active duty this month and Fr. Patrick Costello will begin active duty in 2024. Please prayerfully consider a generous contribution to those who defend our rights of freedom. Envelopes are available at the church doors for this triennial collection.

Festival 2023

A new coordinator is needed for next summer's festival. There are plenty of notes and organizational plans to assist you with leading the way to a successful festival.

How you can help!

- Make a gift to the campaign!
- Pray for the success of the campaign.
- Answer the call to volunteer.

a Catholic campaign to transform communities.

Dear Friends,

For our youth, the voice of Christ and message of the Gospel are woven into our Catholic schools and parish faith formations. Our Catholic schools and faith formation programs play an important role in forming missionary disciples to spread the Good News.

Catholic education and faith formation programs grow extraordinary devoted Catholics, who are inspired to attend Mass, receive God's gifts, pursue holy vocations to ordained service and create faithful marriages and households of discipleship.

Through the one by One campaign, we will reignite the catholic character of our schools, strengthen Catholic school facilities, ensure access to Catholic Schools for middle income families and much more.

I look forward to the full participation of the parish as we seek to further the mission of the church at our parish. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Father Patrick Beno
