Happening in this World--

In July Senator Elizabeth Warren (D-Mass) stated about pro-life crisis pregnancy centers, that "we need to shut them down all around the country" because, she maintains, "they are luring pregnant people-many in desperate situations...." Well, partially true. Pro-life pregnancy centers are not luring anyone. They openly advocate and care for woman, babies, and children. For pro-abortion politicians, this is a new but not surprising low in ways to attack the pro-life cause. It's not very pro-choice is it? They can't be happy unless they decimate the good that others wish to do. Warren said that pro-life groups "are there to fool people who are looking for pregnancy termination." In the meantime there have been numerous acts of vandalism done to pro-life pregnancy centers in the last year. Pro-life crisis pregnancy centers serve woman in desperate situations in communities everywhere with sonograms, baby clothes, cribs, diapers, formula, health supplies and medical needs. Alexandrina Pregnancy Center in Green Bay is available for these and many needs for woman and men.

Elections are just as divisive, just as close, and just as contested in other countries as they are here in the U.S. Brazil is the latest country to elect a left-leaning president. After an October election the president-elect was Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva being declared the winner with 50.9% of the votes. Going back to 1989, Lula (as he is referred to) has run for president several times and been elected twice before, in 2002 and 2006. Lula's election victory was over incumbent Jair Bolsonaro who was elected in 2019. Though Bolsonaro hasn't conceded the election, Lula has already attended a climate conference in Egypt where he prioritized protecting the Amazon rainforest. An AP story this week reports that tens of thousands dressed in the yellow and green of her flag have been protesting Brazil's election outcome for several weeks.

One of, if not the biggest sporting events in the world begins Sunday. The World Cup soccer tournament begins this weekend in Qatar, a country of nearly 3 million people on the Arabian Peninsula. As a major oil and natural gas exporter, Qatar is the world's third richest country. Coincidentally, Brazil enters the tournament as betting favorites. A Yahoo Sports story tells that one bettor has plunked down a mere $150,000 on Brazil which would turn to $600,000 if Brazil wins it all. Meanwhile, several media sources have exposed a story that Qatar has been allegedly building walls in preparation for the World Cup in order to hide the poorer neighborhoods of the country. Comments on Reddit speak of similar things happening in other countries at past World Cups and Olympics.

The Salesian Missionaries originate with St. John Bosco. They are located in 130 countries. In Brazil The Salesians build orphanages and shelters for homeless youth and educate several thousand.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the Week

Whether it is the surgeon performing an operation or the pilot directing a flight, one expects them to be alert. When we entrust our lives to someone, we presume that they will attend to them with the utmost care and vigilance. If we have this expectation of others, why would we not have it of ourselves? Our lives are precious vessels on an eternal journey. We can only stay afloat and on the course because of God's love and mercy. It is easy to get distracted, lazy, preoccupied, and tired. Apathy can wreak havoc on the most dedicated of souls. God's word transforms all that it touches, even a lukewarm heart. Let us seek God's grace this Advent season so that we can walk more fully in His light. Then, finding ourselves more attentive, focused, alert, and watchful, we will be eager and well prepared to meet our Lord when He comes. Why would we not want to be ready, awake, and watchful for the One we have waited for so long?
