Eucharistic Revival

The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB) has launched a three year initiative called the "Eucharistic revival" centered on the Holy Eucharist. The aim of the revival is to:

"encourage a movement of Catholics across the United States, healed, converted, formed and unified by an encounter with Jesus in the Eucharist...and sent out in mission for the life of the world."

In our Diocese, this effort is fueled by a Pastoral letter written by our Bishop Ricken, which focuses us on an absolute reverence for the Eucharist...the real presence of Jesus, both in Mass and in Eucharistic Adoration. Over the next three years we will be laser focused in all of our efforts to emphasize this essential element of our Catholic faith.

Obviously there will be much more to share on this as time unfolds but we can all begin now to take advantage of the things we already have in place in our parish, to deepen our devotion to the Holy Eucharist.

Here are a couple:

Go to Mass, without fail, on Sundays and Holy days. Seems simple but...do we? Do we take full advantage of the fact that there is daily Mass available to us? Do we invite others in our circle to come? Our example to our families is the best thing we can provide. God gives us 168 hours a week. Can we not give at a minimum, ONE hour back in thanksgiving? Or get to one extra Mass per week with the special prayers in our hearts?

Get to Eucharistic Adoration. We offer 20 hours per week and 45 hours on the week of every First Friday. Attend the parish holy hour on the third Wednesday of every month from 5-6 pm. Contact the office and sign up to take a holy hour each week.

This is from the Sisters of Life Religious Order monthly magazine:

They began Adoration at St. Patrick's Cathedral in downtown New York this past Fall, inviting strangers in from the street, to pause and just "be" in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Here are a couple experiences they relate:

"A young man looking at his phone as he passed by the Cathedral. He lifted his head as Sister approached and invited him inside. "Would you like to come in and pray?"

He replied, "Sister, you have no idea what I'm involved in."

She asked him if he was Catholic and he said, "Yes, but I haven't been in a Church in quite awhile. Do you still see good in me?"

Sister said, "Absolutely!...and God sees good in you too. He's not giving up on you."
The man came in and spent an hour alone in front of the monstrance. When he left, smiling broadly, he said to Sister, "Thank you...a huge weight has been lifted."

A woman who had just moved to New York from China, invited in, sat down next to a Sister in front of the Blessed Sacrament. The Sister leaned over and said, "Do you believe in God?"

The young woman said, "God? What is God?"
The Sister pointed at the Eucharist and said, "This is God." She then gave her the prayer, the Litany of Trust, and said, "You can talk to God with these words."

Silently the woman began to read. A few minutes later she looked up with tears in her eyes and said, "This is the first time I've ever heard my heart speak."

There are so many stories like this from the Sisters of Life but also from around the Catholic Church, when we fully recognize Jesus in the Eucharist.

Don't miss out on the greatest gift in the world... right in front of you!

More to come on our focus on the Eucharist!

May God bless you.

Deacon Greg

The Keeping Hours February 19

2017/ Rating: PG13

Run Time: 1 hr. 30 min.

Six years after the death of their son, a divorced couple are reunited by a supernatural event.

Caution: This film is not a horror film but a little eerie early on. Also, the plot of the loss of a child may be too difficult for some. At the same time, this film handles the subject thoughtfully with themes of healing and forgiveness and with strong quality acting.
