Happening in this World-

The fighting in the Ukraine continues and as a result creates major problems in places far away. The war is driving up food prices leading to a crisis that reaches the Middle East and into Africa. A survey done by UNICEF found that 10 African nations and 2 in the Middle East are the worst effected, women and children suffering in the extreme. Acute malnutrition among pregnant women and breastfeeding mothers has risen by 25% in the last two years in these countries, from a report that was released the day before International Women's Day. Poor nutrition leading to weak immunity causes problems in birth. Globally, 51 million children under two years old are too short for their age, a condition called 'stunting'. The affected girls and women have increased from 5.5 million in 2020 to 6.9 million in 2022 in Burkina Faso, Chad, Ethiopia, Kenya, Mali, Niger, Nigeria, Somalia, South Sudan, Sudan, Yemen and Afghanistan, according to the report.

The University of Mary in Bismarck, North Dakota, recently announced a tuition-free nursing program for select full-time freshmen. Mary Dockter, dean of the St. Gianna School of Health Sciences is quoted: "It is tremendously important to us that students in the health profession receive specialized education...not only to become exceptional and skilled providers in their chosen fields, but also exemplars of moral courage, defenders of the sanctity of life and dignity of the human person." In Belmont, NC a new hospital is being built adjacent to Belmont Abbey College to develop and support nursing education and the college's new bachelor's degree in nursing, RN to BSN program, Master of Science in Nursing Leadership and master of Health Administration. Benedictine College in Atchison, Kansas announced that it plans to establish a new osteopathic medical school that "understands the essential role of faith and morality in the sciences."

Holy Week of 2023 begins today with Palm Sunday. Jesus was welcomed into his city, the people hailing him, praising him with so much fervor and hope. Not so long afterwards he would be scourged and driven on the road, in the dirt and mocking. He handed himself over and put his life in the hands of the oppressor. Holy Week is the week of the Savior's sacrifice to pour out all his love and "by his wounds you were healed."

Making Way for God

As Christ reclined at the Passover meal and his impending betrayal, I have to imagine at least one of the disciples thought to himself, incredulously and perhaps even indignantly: And you're not going to do anything about it?

So often we expect God to behave like the frantic parent of a teenager, banging down the closed door of a bedroom filled with loud music. We expect him to be overbearing, snooping in our diary and waiting to ground us the minute we break curfew, desperate to keep us within the family fold, ready and willing to use judgment and force to do so.

It's true that God greatly desires us to stay in friendship with him. But to accomplish it, he does not come to us as a meddler or an overlord. He comes in the same way he does on Palm Sunday. He waits for us to make way.

He may not be overbearing, but he is still devoted, and unfailingly patient. As the Palm Sundays of our lives — the moments of our devotion and piety — give way to the Holy Thursdays, when we inevitably deny him, God does not abandon us. The sacrifice on the cross is still there, waiting for us to accept it.

Say to daughter Zion, "Behold, your king comes to you, meek and riding on an ass, and on a colt, the foal of a beast of burden."

— Matthew 21:5

Pontifical Good Friday Collection April 7, 2023

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The pandemic hit particularly hard the Christians in the Holy Land. Most of them depend on pilgrimages to work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is also necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land where the Church was born.

When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!

For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

Prayer for a Celebration of Holy Week

Jesus, Our Redeemer and Lord,

Enter into my mind and heart as this Holy Week unfolds and open me up to the grace of this sacred time.

Through its symbols and stories, awaken in me an awareness of your great sacrifice, made so generously on our behalf.

As I gather with other members of my parish family, fill me with humility, gratitude and reverence.

From the solemn celebration of Palm Sunday to the opening of the Triduum on Holy Thursday, may my focus remain on you.

As I listen once again to the agonizing story of your Passion, death and burial, may I learn what it means to say, "Your will be done."

And, throughout the quiet space of Holy Saturday, may I await, dormant and expectant, for your rising to new life as Easter dawns.

I ask this in your holy and blessed name.
Amen.
