Eucharistic Beauty

Bishop Fulton Sheen was asked toward the end of his life, "who inspired you ... was it a particular Saint? A Pope?"

His answer took many by surprise ... He said, "the one who inspired me most was a little Chinese girl."

Just imagine, a little girl whose love for Jesus and the Eucharist was so great and impressed him so much, that as a Seminarian, he made a life long commitment to a holy hour before the Blessed Sacrament every day for the rest of his life, without fail.

The story of this brave little girl, Li takes us back to the early 1950s to Communist China, where God was not allowed to be mentioned and those who practiced their belief in Him were imprisoned, tortured or killed by the ruling political class.

Little Li was taught clandestinely by missionary Sisters and she was able to make her first Communion, after learning about the real presence of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. She was able to make a Holy Hour each day until one morning soldiers entered the classroom and destroyed all religious symbols screaming, "The new China will not tolerate these superstitions!"

The same day, a sweep of the village took place and all of the villagers were crammed into the Catholic Church. In front of the people, the soldiers tore the crucifix down and fired bullets into the tabernacle. They tipped it over and hosts were scattered on the ground. They proceeded to trample on them.

The soldiers locked the Priest up in a closet off the Sanctuary, where he would remain under guard, imprisoned for over a month. They then ordered the people to leave saying, "Woe to anyone who enters this den of superstition."

Li left in tears with the others but later that night crept back into the church in complete darkness. The Priest had a small opening where he could witness Li's actions. She had been taught to only receive Holy Communion after an hour of Adoration, once per day, and then only on the tongue. She knelt over the Hosts for an hour and then quietly bent over and picked up one host with her tongue ... prayed for another few minutes and then crept out.

There were 32 Hosts on the ground. Father watched her come back each night and repeat this for over a month ... until the last night. Father was relieved to know after tonight she would be safe.

A single shot rang out from the doorway and the small girl fell ... she managed to crawl to the last Host received it on her tongue with her last bit of strength and died.

Little Li was gone but not before she protected the Eucharist. The Priest was ultimately released and brought her story to the world.

Bishop Sheen knew that Li understood perfectly that the Blessed Sacrament is Jesus, light of the world and joy of all hearts. May we always treat Jesus with respect and pay due reverence to Him in our reception of His Body and Blood.

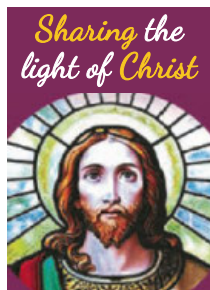

May God bless you,
Deacon Greg

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

A young, engaged couple sat on the couch in front of me as we chatted about their upcoming marriage. The young lady was struggling to trust her future husband. She told me her father had been unfaithful to her mother. She said of her fiancé, "I want him to prove to me that he won't cheat on me." The young man looked at me helplessly, raised his eyebrows and shrugged his shoulders. What evidence could he possibly give to validate such a proof? Nothing. All he could do was invite her to trust him.

We all are wounded by experiences of imperfect love. We also are tempted to demand from God proof of His fidelity and goodness. We are like St. Thomas the Apostle who, on that second Sunday of Easter, demands proof of the Lord's resurrection. "Unless I see the mark of the nail ... I will not believe." Our science, technology and mathematics can indeed prove a great deal. But there are some things that require trusting another person. We prove promises of love only by trusting.

St. Thomas indeed saw the wounds of Jesus and believed. But there is an even greater blessing for us who simply trust Him — and all the truths the Church proclaims — because of the trustworthiness of the Risen One who speaks. This week let's trust Jesus without seeing him.

— Father John Muir
