Feast of Pentecost Saints on the Holy Spirit

St. Basil the Great

The Spirit is the source of holiness, a spiritual light, and he offers his own light to every mind to help it in its search for truth. By nature the Spirit is beyond the reach of our mind, but we can know him by his goodness. Simple in himself, the Spirit is manifold in his mighty works. Like the sunshine, which permeates all the atmosphere, spreading over land and sea, and yet is enjoyed by each person as though it were for him alone, so the Spirit pours forth his grace in full measure, sufficient for all, and yet is present as though exclusively to everyone who can receive him. The Spirit raises our hearts to heaven, guides the steps of the weak, and brings to perfection those who are making progress.

St. Augustine

O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams.

St. Catherine of Siena

Enrich your soul in the great goodness of God: The Father is your table, the Son is your food, and the Holy Spirit waits on you and then makes His dwelling in you.

St. Edith Stein

In the heart of Jesus, which was pierced, the kingdom of heaven and the land of earth are bound together. Here is for us the source of life. This heart is the heart of the Triune Divinity, and the center of all human hearts... It draws us to itself with secret power, it conceals us in itself in the Father's bosom and floods us with the Holy Spirit. This heart, it beats for us in a small tabernacle where it remains mysteriously hidden in that still, white host.

Pope John Paul II

We can think of the Holy Spirit as the soul of our soul, and thus the secret of our sanctification.

"Silenzio Bruno!" We can do it!

St. Vincent de Paul Green Bay recently held a movie event for families that are homeless. The De Pere Cinema opened its doors to show LUCA, the story of the adventures of a young boy and his newfound best friend. Many of the families that attended were from shelters, and some live in their cars. The movie, pizza, popcorn and a bag of surprises to take with them was an enjoyable break from their normal day-to-day existence.

The director of the Safe Shelter, one of our St. Agnes meal ministries, said the kids cannot stop talking about the movie and playing out scenes. "Silenzio Bruno!" is one of the best Luca quotes; whenever Luca and Alberto have a voice in their head telling them they can't do something, they call it a Bruno.

Due to the positive response to this movie night, SVDP is planning another event for this Fall. Your prayers and support are much appreciated. Blessings to all.

Monthly Intercessions - June 2023

Pope Francis' Intention

We pray that the international community may commit in a concrete way to ensuring the abolition of torture and guarantee support to victims and their families.

Bishop Ricken's Intention

For a greater awareness and reverence for Christ's presence: May we recognize Christ's presence in the Eucharist, in the Word, in the priest, and in one another, so as to enter into Mass with greater reverence, faith, and joy.

GOD BLESS AMERICA GLPI

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SPIRIT

Holy Spirit, fan into flame the gifts I received in my Baptism and Confirmation.

I want to receive the fire of Your love as Your disciples did at Pentecost.

Come with wonder and awe, with wisdom, understanding, and counsel, with courage and faith in You.

Holy Spirit, may my actions witness to Your presence in my life.

Help me to see the ways my strengths can serve others in their weakness.

In all my interactions, I want to radiate love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control.

Breathe new life into the world through me. Amen.
