SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

Carport

I received a couple questions last weekend about the carport and not surprisingly so since we had hoped that it would be under construction here during Fall. The hope was that construction would have begun in September and finished in November. Our business manager Dcn. Rob Hendricks prepared the necessary paperwork that was required for the Diocese, the city, and the state and submitted them back in early Spring. We had received the approval for the project from the Diocese and the city but were delayed in the needed state approval. That just came last week. So the question we have is whether to move ahead immediately or to wait until Spring. I had some discussions with members of buildings and grounds, with Dcn. Rob, with our maintenance director Mike Schlumpf, and with the finance council at our monthly meeting. There are several factors we discussed which brought us to agreement that it's best to plan now for Spring. If we decided to go right now we could maybe expect the construction to start in late November. That would mean the mess and inconvenience of it would be all through Advent and Christmas. We could expect possibly snow and mud being tracked in through the middle of winter. There are also issues of pouring cement and laying blacktop in winter and additional costs. So for a number of reasons we will begin planning with Bayland Builders for the Spring, hopefully soon after Easter.

Narthex

This week you might see just a few changes in the narthex. Partly this was just for a change of scenery, even if it's small.

We all like to move stuff around the house once in a while for a little different feel. But there are also a few additions.

Prayer Shawls- Prayer shawls have been available for a long time either in the priest's sacristy or the parish office. They will now be much more accessible by having a supply of them on a table in the narthex. Prayer shawls are for the elderly, the sick, those in the hospital, assisted living, nursing homes. Please feel free to take one for a family or a friend and let them know that as they were made there were prayers said by the knitter for whoever would receive it. Thanks to Mary Larsen for providing the basket and table.

Pantry- A few years ago two book cases were added for a lending library. Both of those book cases have been moved to the other side of the narthex. One of them remains a lending library or book exchange. I'm testing out the idea with the other one to have a small pantry. The idea is that food items there could be taken by anyone who needs them, think of it as a food exchange, a co-op. Leave some food and/or take food. Please no out-of-date items.

Anniversary Potluck

We're looking forward to a nice lunch party next Saturday in celebration of our double anniversary. We have a lot of people signed up to bring something and you can still do that this weekend. Even if you don't sign up to bring something you can always decide to this week. We also need some help with the set-up and clean-up. There's games and crafts for the kids. There will also be a history display so if you have any photos to add to that it's welcome. Hope you stop in and enjoy the meal from 11:30-1:30.

27 Words That Matter

One of the quickest things you learn as a parent is how dangerous it is to explain too much, especially when your kid is teetering on the brink of a rebellion. The fewer words you use, the more power they have. A kid who is about to be carried away by their feelings needs to be brought back to earth with a tether made of short, succinct directions.

There are a lot of similarities between the Pharisees of Scripture and a toddler on the edge of a meltdown. Stay with me — this will make sense, I promise. Think about it: both toddlers and Pharisees have lots of feelings and lots of opinions. Both toddlers and Pharisees think you're out to get them. Both toddlers and Pharisees keep trying to trick you to get what they think they want.

A thorough Google search informs me that there are about 80,000 words in the Torah. Eighty-thousand words, and Jesus can boil it all down to 27: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind" and "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

It doesn't make the excess words untrue; it doesn't even make them unnecessary. Sometimes I need the long explanation, the full and complete picture.

Because sometimes, as much as I hate to admit it, I act like both a toddler and a Pharisee. I am carried away by my feelings. I don't trust God. I am about to bolt.

When that happens, I need to be told in short and simple terms what my salvation means. I need a tether made of short, succinct directions.

"The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments." — Matthew 22:40
