Our Daily Bread

A certain Asian legend tells of a king and his son. The king bestowed on the prince a royal endowment that would pay him handsomely for 12 months a year. But the king decided that rather than pay his son all at once he would distribute the payment in daily allotments. In this way the king would see his beloved son every day of the year.

This legend is somewhat like our relationship with God. He wants to be with us always because He loves us so much.

We acknowledge as much when we pray the Our Father...our "daily bread"... asking for only what we need for that day to live as children of God. We pray for our daily fill of not just food, but faith, hope, joy, love and food for our souls...the Holy Eucharist.

As a Church, we have refocused over the next three years on the Eucharist. We know that bread is a symbol of the many gifts that come from God, but Holy Communion is the ACTUAL body, blood, soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ. The Church Fathers from the very beginning interpreted the "bread" in the Lord's prayer in both a material sense AND the bread of eternal life...the Eucharist.

"I am the bread of life. Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness and they died. This is the bread which comes down from Heaven, that a man may eat it and not die. I am the living bread which came down from Heaven; if anyone eats of this bread he will live forever and the bread I shall give for the life of the world is my flesh." (John 6:60)

St. John remembered this discourse for the rest of his days as well as the exact location...."This He said in the synagogue as He taught at Capernaum." These words have such an impact on the world and our beliefs as Catholics that they cannot be interpreted in a figurative way. Jesus puts it into context, mentioning manna from the Book of Exodus. He was prefiguring the bread of life that would nourish us in our progress to heaven.

Holy Communion is our opportunity to share in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ. When we worthily receive this gift, we should be filled with thanksgiving and a gratitude that moves us toward frequent reception... daily, if possible.

We should never take it for granted and receive it as respectfully as possible.

Let us resolve to improve our preparation for Communion by having more faith in the real presence of Jesus and end with the prayer spoken to the Lord by the believers in Capernaum..."Lord, give us this bread always."

May God bless you.

Deacon Greg

Hope Center Pantry

505 Clinton St., Green Bay

Dear St. Agnes Members:

This past six months many of you brought in food to be donated to the Hope Center Pantry. Or maybe you offered up a prayer for the Pantry, the clients that utilize it or the volunteers that make it happen. For all of this support, we are so appreciative. The outreach efforts of the Pantry continue to grow as in 2023 alone, we have added over 630 new clients (so far).

On August 29, 2023 Thrivent hosted a "Thrivent Cans Hunger" event at the Pantry. The goal was to have 1,000 cans of food items that the Pantry was most in need of donated at the event. For every can donated, Thrivent would match $3.00 to the Pantry (up to $3,000.00). Thrivent dropped off bags at your church to fill with food items that the Pantry most needed. Bags could be brought back to the event and you could have a FREE ice cream treat! We had a beautiful weather day for the event. It was an overwhelming success. In only 3 hours we more than surpassed our goal by collecting 2,042 items!!!

Once again the Holy Spirit has perfectly situated our Pantry to have the donors, the volunteers and the food supply at a time when it is desperately needed. Right now this is especially true for older adults in our community. Over 40% of our clients are on FoodShare. Starting in April, older adults realized the impact of having their monthly FoodShare benefits fall from $281 to $23. So many elderly that have been affected by this are leaning on the Pantry to help fill that void.

It's hard to imagine what it's like to have to make tough decisions in regards to feeding your family. The food that the Pantry distributes consist of wonderful nutritious items. The clients are often taken aback with all that is available to them.

In November, we are offering to all of our Pantry clients an array of food options to complete their Thanksgiving meal. This includes such food items as stuffing mix, yams (sweet potatoes), pumpkin, gravy and cranberries.

The way we look at it, we are cogs in God's big wheel, and we are amazed at all that we can accomplish with so many like you giving unselfishly! We leave you with HUGE thanks!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Mt 25:1-13

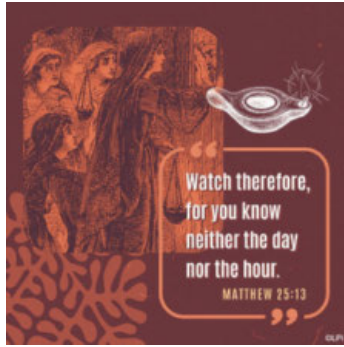

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word.

Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark.
