SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

J.M.J.
Fr. Patrick

I wish to express my sincere thank you to the parish staff and to do so by name: Deacon Greg Rotherham, Mike Schlumpf, Tony Weyenberg, Deacon Rob Hendricks, Gail Eichhorn, Maureen Nesvacil, Lisa Urick, Donna Schuld, Kristina Wery, Joyce Long, Stephanie Schneider and Renata Hruska. Our staff is wonderful. They all care very much about what they do and the welfare of the parish in their respective areas. Thank you to Carol Kekula for the reliable and valuable service she provides to the parish and to me particularly with liturgy. Thank you to our parish and finance councils and buildings and grounds committee. They sacrifice time in many ways to help keep things going well and to plan for our future.

We recently had the potluck lunch to celebrate our 70th/50th anniversary. Thank you to Cheryl Smet for her goodness in pulling this event together. Thank you to all those who volunteered to help Cheryl in the planning and on the day of. I enjoyed it very much. Lots of delicious food and it was nice to so many parishioners for a relaxed Saturday. In a month, on the weekend of December 16-17, we will honor our anniversaries again with blessing throughout the church. I will do this at all Masses.

It's Thanksgiving week. Sadly there are places and many people in the world suffering because of war, Palestine, Israel, and Ukraine. Other places have conflicts and persecution such as Azerbaijan and Nicaragua. All these are the children of God. We have violence that erupts so frequently in America along with an unsteady economy and various social clashes that separate us too much. Families have problems, maybe most of our families--things we are sad about and feel at a loss as to what we can do.

St. Josemaria Escriva taught that the "best way of showing our gratitude to God is to be passionately in love with the fact that we are His children." Seek to bring peace for your life by peaceful changes. Make a simple prayer, in sincerity and strong faith, towards and with Christ for the peace he wishes to give.

Offer a real prayer to God for thanksgiving so we can be influenced by such gratitude.

Happy Thanksgiving!

I wish you a wonderful week. Enjoy and give thanks.

CATHOLIC

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

What Remains

When my grandfather died, my parents, siblings, and I were left with the question: what's to become of the house?

Anyone who has inherited property knows that it's not simply a matter of assuming ownership of a plot of land upon which sits four walls and a roof. Those four walls and a roof usually contain memories and objects — an enormous volume of both, in the case of my grandfather. When they're left to you, you have to sift through them, the memories and the objects, and with each one you have to think: Is it worth it? Do I keep it? Will I need it?

And slowly, painfully, you disassemble the physical existence of the person who lived here. You accept, with a pang, that most of it must be given away or discarded. You cry when you bag up the clothes to take to Goodwill. You can't even bear to look when they break the piano into a hundred pieces and throw it in a dumpster, realizing that no one wants or has a use for something that was once so precious.

But when you come upon a rosary that was used so many times it has begun to fall apart, you don't even think twice before keeping it, and not because you need the rosary. You need what it means. You need what it reminds you of.

When all is said and done, each of us will be called before our master to settle accounts, just as my grandfather was.

"Where are the gifts I gave you? What remains of the fortune to which I entrusted you?" he will ask us.

"What have you done with the peace? What have you done with the love? What have you done with the mercy?"

*"You yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night."
1 Thessalonians 5:2*

Thanksgiving Prayer

O God, when I have food,
help me to remember the hungry;
When I have work,
help me to remember the jobless;
When I have a home,
help me to remember those who have no home at all;
When I am without pain,
help me to remember those who suffer,
And remembering,
help me to destroy my complacency;
be concerned enough to help;
by word and deed,
those who cry out for what we take for granted.
Amen.
