SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

Bulletin Deadline

Has no one returned to give praise to God?

Jesus asked, "Were not all ten cleansed? Where are the other nine? Has no one returned to give praise to God except this foreigner?" Then He said to him, "Rise and go; your faith has made you well."
Luke 17:17-19

We have all heard this Gospel many times about the ten lepers who were healed and only one had the urge to return to Jesus and thank Him. You don't have to be a Scripture scholar to figure out that WE are the ungrateful nine who don't praise God in thanksgiving nearly enough.

This Thanksgiving, hopefully we have all made a special effort to list in prayer, the things that we are grateful for this past year.

After God, my list begins with you.

Most of you know that my wife had a serious stroke on August 10th. She is home recovering after a successful brain surgery. The journey has been challenging but we have had great doctors, therapists, family and friends to support us all along these past 100 days.

The prayers, Masses, cards and good wishes offered by our family at St. Agnes plus many others have been overwhelming. We will never be able to find the words to thank you enough. Annual weekly Masses offered at locations from Massachusetts to California, too many religious orders praying to even keep track of, private Mass offerings and individual prayers, candles lit along with rosaries galore!

I've known that St. Agnes parishioners are special for a long time but it has really been driven home for us during this time. Please know that Ann's recovery has been supported by prayer and we have felt it. We are convinced that this is why she's here to continue her earthly work in whatever God has in store going forward.

Thank you SO much for this love. We are grateful to God and wish you all a Blessed Advent!

Deacon Greg and Ann Rotherham

Christ the King

"Hail the King of the Jews." The kingship of Christ has always been different than the world expected. Many of Jesus' disciples hoped for an earthly Messiah who would overthrow the Romans. But, as Jesus says in today's Gospel, his kingdom is "not of this world." And yet it is a very real kingdom. Jesus is a very real Lord. And we are called to invite Jesus to be king of our lives. In the early 20th century, disillusionment with authority of all kinds was growing. Revolutions, atheistic thinkers, and World War I contributed to a rejection of faith. In 1925, Pope Pius XI called the Church and the world back to a sense of hope in Christ. He instituted the Solemnity of Christ the King on the last Sunday before Advent. How is Jesus king of your life today?

St. Andrew Christmas Novena

Begins on November 30, the Feast of St. Andrew, and continues through Christmas Eve

-To be prayed 15 times each day -

Hail and blessed be the hour and the moment in which the Son of God was born of the most pure Virgin Mary at midnight, in Bethlehem, in piercing cold.
In that hour vouchsafe, O my God,
to hear my prayer and grant my desires, (mention your intentions here)
through the merits of Our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and of his Blessed Mother.
Amen.

This is a simple Advent prayer of preparation and petition by opening our hearts to both seek and to receive the Christ Child, and the salvation He brings, while asking God, with humble confidence, to grant our deepest longings.
(You can divide it up - 5 in morning, 5 at noon, 5 at night.)
