SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

Monday noon

J.M.J.
Fr. Patrick

In Mass after we pray The Creed comes the Preface, a prayer the priest says or chants. Following the Preface we have the Holy, Holy, Holy (the Sanctus) which on Sundays we would ordinarily be singing together. Notice what takes place. We pray the Holy, Holy, Holy- a prayer which clearly is a brief expression to praise God: "Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of your glory. Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Hosanna in the highest." That is followed by the congregation kneeling. The act of kneeling at this time seems to be both a physical response to the praising of God as Holy and also putting one deliberately in a position of humility for what comes next- the Eucharistic Prayer and the consecration of the host and wine to the Body and Blood.

There are several Eucharistic Prayers, some are very short and some much longer, and maybe people don't know that the priest has the option of which Eucharistic Prayer to use. I would assume people know that's an option but maybe not so. The very long Eucharistic Prayer is #1 and it's the one with many saints named. That prayer is also called the 'Canon' of the Mass. Eucharistic Prayer 1 is the oldest of the Eucharistic Prayers and in fact was the only one used before 1970. The Church has used this Prayer for over 1600 years.

The saints named in this prayer are from the early history of the Church and most of them are martyrs. Our parish patron saint is in this prayer. Early on when I came to St. Agnes I felt like I wanted to give her name Agnes a little emphasis when using Eucharistic Prayer 1. Back then I would project her name louder than the others--

"Felicity, Perpetua, Agatha, Lucy, AGNES, Cecilia, Anastasia."

Later I decided for a softer and more personal nod by saying "our dear Agnes." I like the idea of thinking that even though she lived so long ago that she is remembered in a time and a place far from her own. She is acknowledged and honored as ours and we hold her dear to us as our friend in heaven. Her symbols are the palm branch, a symbol common to all the martyrs, and the little lamb. The lamb is of course a symbol of Jesus.

There is a Mass Preface that comes from St. Ambrose (4th c.) which is: St. Agnes, disdaining the advantages of noble birth, merited heavenly honors; caring nothing for what human society desires, she won the society of the eternal kingdom; accepting a precious death for professing Christ, she at the same time was conformed to his likeness.

The cover of the bulletin is a photo of the St. Agneses from the Holy Family School celebration of All Saints' Day last November. A charming group indeed!

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

A Good Time for Fulfillment

There are some things that always come at the worst time. I've never gotten a telemarketing call and thought, "This is a really convenient moment for me to listen to a sales pitch." I've never seen the compulsory software update notice flash on my computer screen when I didn't have a deadline I was struggling to meet. My kids never come down with the flu unless it's the weekend and the line at Urgent Care is stretching out the door.

And I never, ever feel the calm, persistent shoulder-tap of the Holy Spirit without thinking, "Now? Now is not a good time. Can you try again when I'm...."

But then I stop and think: When I am what? When I am stronger? When I am happier? When I am smarter? When I am a different person?

When God calls us, He calls the person He sees in front of Him. "Come on," He says, and He doesn't mean "When you're finished" or "When it's convenient" or "Think about it." He means now. This moment.

This is what Paul is saying when he writes that "the world in its present form is passing away." He is saying that your plans mean nothing, the kingdom of God is at hand. Abandon your nets, let your catch escape into the sea. You're not who you thought you were, and you don't need what you thought you needed.

Your sins do not define you. Your fears are not fate. Your inclinations do not govern you. Your life can be changed. We live in the time of fulfillment, and fulfillment is coming for you — ready or not.

"Jesus came to Galilee proclaiming the gospel of God: 'This is the time of fulfillment.'"

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

God's GPS Never Fails

I use GPS wherever I go and it serves me well most of the time. However, sometimes it leads me to a place that does not exist. Then there are those times when I am about to turn and the man inside my phone shouts out, "GPS signal lost" or "Rerouting!" The problem is when the area is unfamiliar to me, I have no choice but to listen. I could try to get where I am going by simple intuition or pulling over to look at a paper map, but I don't trust my sense of direction and haven't bought a paper map in close to a decade.

Many people move through life without any direction. They find themselves constantly rerouting and wondering when they will ever get to a satisfying final destination. What they need is a compass and a companion for the journey, yet they have no idea how to get either.

Prayer can serve as a compass and it connects us to a companion for the journey. Stewardship living is impossible without prayer. If we count on our own will and believe we can become fruitful without daily contact with the divine we can find ourselves looking for directions more than moving toward a destination. God through prayer will help us see all we have as gift. God through prayer will lead us away from materialism and selfishness toward freedom and generosity. Even when we fall to sin, the path back is clearer. God's GPS signal is never really lost.
