SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

Bulletin Deadline

Monday noon

The following announcement is essentially what I stated last weekend. It is printed here for those who had not heard and at the direction of the diocese.

J.M.J.
Fr. Patrick

Dear parishioners -

This is my 12th year at St. Agnes. In recent years the diocese and Bishop have chosen to limit the term of pastors to 12 years. Come June I will have reached 12 years and the end of my term here. I was to make this early announcement as part of the preparations.

I am not ready to say much more at this point but will in time. I love St. Agnes Parish and it is very difficult to picture not being here. I appreciate your prayers and we keep the parish in prayer for much grace and good things in the future.

Thank You

The St. Agnes Religious Education/Youth Ministry Program thank our volunteers for a wonderful job done at our Pancake Breakfast last weekend. Our team leaders, Lori LeMay and Stefani Butler worked very hard to make this fundraiser a big success for us! Thanks as well to Jenny Tracy, Georgie Hazuka, Nicolette and Donovan Miller, Stacie Lindberg, Renee Jankowski, Debbie Whiffen, Tara Yates, Joleen Exferd, and many others! Our students also stepped up in a big way. I would especially like to thank Lisa Urick and Maureen Nesvacil for leading in my place. Clearly, God blesses us when we work together.

Adult Confirmation Who Can Receive This Sacrament?

“Every baptized person not yet confirmed can and should receive the sacrament of Confirmation...for without Confirmation and Eucharist, Baptism is certainly valid...but Christian initiation remains incomplete.”

If this describes you consider Adult Confirmation to be held May 19, 2024, at St. Francis Xavier Cathedral. Registration for classes through St. Agnes Parish is open now through Feb. 14.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Mk 1:21-28

I love movies about exorcisms. Apparently, so do many others. The 2023 movie "Nefarious" features a possibly possessed inmate on death row. Critics were not impressed, but audiences scored it at 97% on the website Rotten Tomatoes. Most people have an appreciation for the demonic realm, even if cultural elites are generally embarrassed about it. As is standard in exorcism movies, the afflicted person (in this case, a man named Edward Brady) thinks and acts like multiple persons. He is someone besides himself. We know what that is like. We feel fake sometimes, not ourselves.

The same dynamic is on dramatic display this week in the Gospel. Jesus the Exorcist approaches a possessed man who utters, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth?" Notice the plural, us. The basic effect of the demonic is division. The man's identity is fractured, divided, and thus many. Jesus powerfully expels the spirit by saying, "Quiet! Come out of him!" Jesus' word has the power to restore the man's singularity — him — and indeed it does.

All this helps us to dismiss childish images of demons sporting red goat tails. Equally, it overcomes the cultured aloofness that dreams demons are mere metaphors for evil. We see instead that fallen angels are conscious and intelligent beings who orient their agency toward division. They bring about schism where there should be unity, e.g., in persons, families, communities, politics, and so on. Thankfully, Jesus commands demons to flee from all these places to restore wholeness and peace. What if we made room for his word where we need it?
