EASTER SUNDAY

He bent down and saw the burial cloths there, but did not go in. When Simon Peter arrived after him, he went into the tomb and saw the burial cloths there, and the cloth that had covered his head, not with the burial cloths but rolled up in a separate place. - Jn 20:5-7

Fr. Patrick

The people of St. Agnes Parish are very, very generous. You are generous when it comes to taking care of the parish, the ongoing donations for the Hope Center Pantry, the annual Back-To-School and Hygiene for the Homeless Collections and the Diocesan second collections. Recently I included a collection for a Monastery in Ukraine. For those who don't know about this I'd like to retell the story. Last summer I met Olga Hietpas at an art fest in downtown Green Bay. Olga does Ukrainian egg painting and workshops. We planned that Olga would do two workshops here, one with the 8th grade class and one for anyone and these occurred on March 1 and 2. Olga has a cousin who is a priest in Ukraine named Fr. Slavomyr Fesz, also called Fr. Timothy, and the monastery he is at has for a number of years done spiritual counseling for people struggling with addictions. With the war in Ukraine now going on the last few years they have begun to do spiritual care for people having war trauma, including injured soldiers. Olga told me that all she earns from doing workshops she is giving to help her cousin Fr. Timothy and the monastery as they are building additions and a kitchen. So I told her that we would do an extra collection to help out, that it would be a Lenten offering from the parish. I told you that weekend that of course there's no obligation to give to this collection but whatever we can give will be helpful. I might have guessed that the collection would amount to maybe $1000. Amazed when the collection totaled $4,183! Your interest and generosity turned into a big Lent-Easter gift. We wired the money to the monastery and received this message of gratitude from Fr. Timothy by way of Olga:

"Glory forever! Olga, I am very grateful for your support. I would like to thank Fr. Patrick personally through you. The Lord knows what he is doing, and we will submit to His will. May the Lord strengthen and protect you. Sincere thanks."

I hope your prayer today at St. Agnes has been good and graced. Happy Blessed Easter and Easter Season through to the feasts of Ascension, Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and Corpus Christi.
