Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. Parish Council and Trustee News

The parish has two trustees, the Secretary Trustee and the Finance Trustee. The Secretary Trustee sits on the parish council and the Finance Trustee obviously on the Finance Council. Warren Johnson is our current Secretary Trustee and Lee Larson is our Finance Trustee, both of them serving in these roles for two years. A trustee term is two years and a person can serve for up to three consecutive two-year terms. We haven't had a trustee election for some time so we are going to now set things back on course. The elections will be staggered so that this year will be an election for Secretary Trustee and next year for Finance. Warren Johnson will run again for a second term. But we are opening the election up to other interested candidates to be nominated. If you wish to put your name up for nomination please contact the parish office to have the message get to me by Monday April 15th. The election will take place April 27-28.

We need new members for Parish Council. I/we have not put the call out for this in a few years. There are two or three Council members who plan to go off council having been on anywhere from 7-9 years. If you are interested in being considered for Parish Council please also call the office for me. New council members are not added by election but by a drawing, dependent on the number interested. The drawing of new members will also occur on the weekend of April 27-28.

Thank you.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Written in the Wounds

For all the condemnation Thomas the Doubter has received in 2000 years of homilies, I think there's something to admire in him.

Thomas is not unique. We all waver at some point, overcome by hesitation, distracted by the clamor of the world which seeks at every turn to shout above the whisper of the divine.

Thomas knows what he saw on Good Friday: his friend nailed to a cross, a sword driven through his body. He saw the blood and the water. He saw these things with his own eyes, eyes given to him by God, eyes which have never failed him before. And God doesn't ask us to suspend reality to believe in Him. He only asks us to be discerning about how that reality is interpreted in our hearts.

Thomas knows the man before him is either a fraud, preying on the hopes and anxieties of the traumatized disciples, or he is the Christ, the Savior of the world, accomplisher of impossible things. But where to look, to tell the difference?

Satan once appeared to the great mystic saint, Teresa of Avila, disguised as Jesus. She knew instantly that he was a fraud. Enraged, he demanded to know where his deception had failed. "You have no wounds," she told him simply.

Could we have accepted a savior who did not bleed? I don't think we could, because sooner or later, we would all stand before him and say, "Here is where the world hurt me. Here, and here, and here. What about you?" Christ can point to his hands, his feet, his side. "Here, and here, and here," he can say. "And I overcame them all."

It's the wounds, you see. The truth is in the wounds.

Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" — John 20:28
