a few items

Thank you to all who gave time, talent, energy, creativity, and care to helping with Holy Week and Easter. Thank you very much! I hope all who were here for the Triduum and Easter Masses felt good being here and received the grace and presence of Christ.

Did you happen to notice the new altar cloth? That is a gift in memory and love from the family of Kitty Hendry. Thank you to Kitty's family for your generosity!

We have completed this year's Bishop's Appeal in what may have been record fashion, about eight weeks to reach the goal. At this point we went beyond the goal by a few thousand dollars so half of that will be remitted to us. Thank you for helping the parish with our portion assigned to support Diocesan ministries. It enables the Parish Finance Council to focus primarily on other parish needs and projects.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

3rd Sunday of Easter

Lk 24:35-48

When I was a kid, a friend at my home parish told me, "If you get to Mass by the Gospel reading, it counts!" As a lifelong late-arriver, it's something I have told myself many times, especially in my earlier years as a Catholic. If the "it counts" is justifiable on a pathetically minimal scale of liturgical legalism, then the Gospel reading today shows how insanely wrong-headed it is, and how helpful it is to re-think the Mass in its light.

The famous "Road to Emmaus" story recounts, on that first Sunday of the Resurrection, the basic two-fold structure of the Mass: Word, followed by Eucharist. Jesus spends a significant period of time with two dismayed disciples, as he connects a wide swath of the Hebrew scriptures with his own suffering, death, and resurrection. They would later report that this Liturgy of the Word touched their hearts with an inexplicable fire. This Word-induced flame alone is what leads the two disciples to discover Jesus' presence in the "breaking of the bread."

With this in mind, how can we possibly think that the Liturgy of the Word is unnecessary or incidental? The two disciples needed the Scriptures explained to them in order to experience Jesus alive in the eucharistic breaking of bread. Sure, we say, but they had the Risen Jesus. But that's precisely the point: Jesus is risen and accompanies us in both parts of the Mass. Imagine how much our experience of Jesus in the Eucharist would deepen if we (preachers and listeners) took even more seriously that Jesus himself sets our hearts ablaze with his Word so that we know him in the Eucharist. That Word-induced fire counts, too!
