SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. In art she is often portrayed holding a lamb, a symbol of innocence. Saint Agnes is the patron saint of young girls.

Tributes

Joyce Long

Joyce Long has been plinking out the melodies, planning our music, and scheduling the cantors and musicians for my entire time and before. It is a great passion for her, much more than a hobby, really a gift she treasures. She has dedicated so many years to the parish. Think of all the Masses she has played for. I have always enjoyed working with her. Thank you Joyce for your kindness. Thank you immensely for being the steady note and pleasant harmony of our parish liturgy.

Stephanie Schneider

I met Stephanie the year before I came to St. Agnes when I had the wedding of her and her husband Matt. Now they have two lively daughters Izzie and Ivy. Stephanie became our choir director six years ago and she brings so much to the role- her friendliness, enthusiasm, talent, and creativity. She does so much and it amazes me because she's a wife and mom and went to nursing school and now works as a nurse. Stephanie thank you for your cheerfulness and the shine you bring to parish music.

Deacon Rob Hendricks

Deacon Rob came on staff a couple years ago as our business manager. He had a lot of experience and it was fortunate timing that he was looking to get into parish work at the same time as our need opened up. He has brought stability for us in the whole area of parish business. Right now of course he has been key in the carport building project. But has a whole range of responsibilities and regularly works with our finance council. Thank you Rob for all you do and how easy it has been to work with you. You have been a great help to me and the parish.

Tony Weyenberg

Tony is the assistant to our maintenance director Mike Schlumpf. Maybe not a lot of people know Tony but he has been working part-time for us for several years. In this capacity he takes care of lawn work and snow removal but beyond that many tasks of order and upkeep. I may not see or talk to Tony as much as other staff but he is really friendly and I am glad he's with us.

May 19, 2024

Dear Fr. Patrick Beno,

Your dedicated parishioners have supported Safe Shelter, Inc. since we opened in 2021. Through them & their Ministry, our families here at Safe Shelter have benefited from this support.

The team who provides the monthly meals are dedicated and make a significant difference in the lives of our parents and children. It is a joy to see and visit with them monthly. Our families look forward to these meals and the socialization offered by this compassionate group.

Yesterday one of your parishioners brought in several cases of toilet paper. God answers prayer as we are very low on this product right now.

Without caring folks like you, shelters and other nonprofits would be in severe need of most items it takes to service our residents on a limited budget.

Blessings & Peace,

Pearl Webster

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

10th Sunday
in Ordinary Time

Mk 3:20-35

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: “How can Satan cast out Satan?” To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we’re honest, our response to some degree is: “How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!” But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here’s what I mean.

Satanas names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. “I’ll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy.” “She’s already trying to get ahead of me.” “That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs.” And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind’s sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus’ cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of “casting out Satan by Satan” and ushers in a new one he calls “the Kingdom of God.” He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the “stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house.” This week let’s notice the ways we “cast out Satan by Satan,” and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand.
