SAINT AGNES

Saint Agnes was born in 291 into a Roman family of nobility and raised in a Christian family. She suffered martyrdom for her faith and commitment to her virginity as a young teen on January 21, 304. J.M.J.
Fr. Patrick

The Beno-Palooza last Sunday was amazing. I guess around 350 people were able to attend. I am so appreciative of the time and effort that went into the party. It was awesome. The food was fantastic too and there was such an abundance that it was split up for George to take to the shelter for a meal that night and I took a large amount to House of Hope after the event wrapped up.

Tributes

Mike Schlumpf

Mike has been our maintenance director for about ten years. I have great appreciation for all he does and how he does it. Maybe that has to do in part with the fact that I can't fix a darn thing. But the truth is Mike has a big campus to be attentive to. With several buildings there is ongoing maintenance, seasonal needs, projects, and unplanned problems. He has to balance and juggle a lot of situations and he is excellent at his job. He also has been very conscientious at trying to save the parish money in many ways. He has a lot of people relying on him both with the parish and the school. Mike works closely with the Buildings and Grounds under the direction of Ken Hager. Thank you Mike for your skill and care in your job.

Deacon Greg Rotherham

Deacon Greg has been with us now about six years. People have commented to us several times about what he and I are talking to each other about sometimes in the sanctuary, laughing about something, or noted how they see us interacting. Someone recently said we should do a podcast together! Well, what you see is that we are friends and we both appreciate that very much. Greg speaks from time to time about his work in jail ministry but he also has frequent funerals at funeral homes, does pastoral ministry at assisted living places and hospital visits, assists with Masses and preaching, and many other spiritual, liturgical, and community things behind the scenes. We taught Confirmation Class together for four years and that was great. Thank you Deacon Greg for how you've helped me and the parish.

Carol Kekula

Several years ago I said to Carol- "Carol I have a favor to ask you." Then I said, "Well, everything you do is a favor." 😊 From the time I arrived here Carol has been doing favors for me, for the parish, for the school. Her foundation is her love of the Faith and the liturgy- the Mass. She has been immensely supportive and helpful. Here is an example--how many times Carol would notice if I forgot to put on my mic before Mass! Thank you Carol. Carol will be having a shoulder surgery in July. We wish and pray that all goes well, to bring relief, and for good recovery.

Renata Hruska

Speaking of forgetfulness, I'm not the most absent-minded person in the world, but some days are worse than others. Thank goodness for Renata. I always told her what I had on my schedule and we would update our calendars from time to time. She knew it was good to remind me- "remember you have this or that today." Renata has more tasks than people know. It would be a long list to tell. It's admirable. And she does them all despite constant distractions- much of the time from me as she would listen to me ramble on with random stories. Heroic patience! She is the voice and face of the parish, first point of contact for most people, be they longtime parishioners, new parishioners, strangers. We're all grateful for her talents and dedication. She was also a great pal to Ramona. I am indebted to Renata for so many things. Thank you.

Kristina Wery

Kristina has been a part-time member of the staff for several years assisting Deacon Rob and several business managers before him. She is wonderfully friendly and I'm grateful to her for her work and fun conversations. We found out that we have some shared favorite music and movies. So I finish my tributes with a line from a movie that she was the only one I ever knew who knew exactly what I was referencing. To all of you-- "Check ya later, check ya later."

BANNS OF MARRIAGE

I Megan Sullivan & Troy Belter

This couple wishes to be married at St. Agnes Church. If anyone is aware of any serious reason why this marriage should not take place, he or she has a moral obligation before God to make the pastor aware of the concern.

RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

Living Parables

Whenever someone begins a sentence with, “This parable means...” I roll my eyes. (Sometimes I do this inwardly, to be polite. But I still do it.)

We have a tendency to treat the parables like our mom’s favorite casserole recipe. Ah yes, we think as we sit down to dinner, smiling as we inhale the aroma of childhood. Good ol’ mushy-chicken-rice-thing. I recognize you. I know exactly what you are. I don’t even have to think about you.

Parables are often presented as an example of how God stoops to meet the limits of human understanding: truth, but in a cute little story! And while it’s certainly true that the parables of Christ — each word, each detail, each character — are painstakingly crafted to suit the imagination and intelligence of man, we need to be careful how we think about that.

Sometimes we have a tendency to think of parables as simple and formulaic. We consign them to the genre of bedtime stories, whose point is to soothe, to lull. But these are stories that are meant to keep us awake. They are meant to keep us wondering.

When Christ spoke of the mustard seed, he was speaking the truth in words that his disciples needed to hear two thousand years ago. But he was also speaking to you today. And he was speaking to you tomorrow, and next year, and three years from now, and on your deathbed. If you read this parable on each of those occasions, you will hear something different each time. The parable, you see, is something alive.

It doesn’t change, exactly, because the truth never changes. But people change, and what they need to hear changes too.

Don’t ever make the mistake of thinking you can finish Jesus’ sentences.

“With many such parables he spoke the word to them as they were able to understand it.” – Mark 4:33
