A Brief Introduction

Praise the Lord! I would like to express my gratitude to Saint Agnes Parish for your warm welcome. This past year, I've been ministering at Saint Raphael Parish in Oshkosh. For the past few weeks I have waited in anticipation of arriving here at Saint Agnes. Now here we are. Many thanks to Fr. Patrick for his help in sharing with me the many blessings he has experienced here at the parish for the past twelve years. We have met a few times through the past couple of months for a "data dump." There is a lot for me to learn. I would also like to extend my gratitude to the parish staff and Deacon Greg. We have been in touch here and there in anticipation of arriving. Interestingly, Fr. Patrick and I had spent some time studying at the seminary together in Chicago. Through the years, I had the chance to meet his parents while assigned to Sts. Peter & Paul on the East Side for my first assignment. Funny story...I remember Fr. Patrick's mother found out that I liked Little Debbie Nutty Bars back then so I was a constant recipient of those bars from her! That was eighteen years ago! I am honored to follow in Fr. Patrick's footsteps, so to say, along with other priests who have pastored here through the years. I am very much looking forward to beginning to get to know you all. Please be assured of my prayers for you in a particular way during Mass. One of the most profound and beautiful parts of being a priest is the opportunity to pray the Mass. Although it happens in innumerable settings throughout one's life, there is something special when it is in the context of a parish community. Saint Agnes has been a stable presence of generosity and love. I very much look forward to being a part of this beautiful parish tradition here. I ask for your prayers in a particular way so that I may begin this time with an awareness of all that makes this a special place. Now & Forever!

Fr. Quinn

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mk 6:1-6a

Recently I watched a bunch of YouTube videos on how to optimize willpower in the face of weakness. The message was: do not accept your weakness. Crush it. Dominate it. In one video, however, at the end of a rant by a willpower coach, the muscular stoic admitted, “You’ll never actually get what you want, no matter how hard you try.” Amazingly, he admitted that willpower alone is not sufficient for us weak-willed humans.

What does God want us to do with our weaknesses, if crushing them with willpower won’t work? For example, what should I do with my tendency to arrogance and self-isolation? Or my procrastination? Or my intellectual and physical limitations? Or my selfishness?

The counter-intuitive answer is clear in this week’s words from St Paul, “I will rather boast most gladly of my weaknesses in order that the power of Christ may dwell in me (2 Cor. 12:9).” Boast of our weaknesses? Paul isn’t promoting weak-mindedness or laziness. Rather, he perceives that Jesus loves us not despite our weaknesses but because of them. Boasting of our weakness means claiming human will is not all we have. It means turning to God whenever we feel weak, which—let’s face it—is almost all the time. When we do, we learn to love our weaknesses, because it’s there that we meet the strength of Christ. This week, I challenge us to find ways to boast not in willpower but in weakness.

— Father John Muir

Memorial: July 13

It was Saint Henry's custom to undertake nothing without prayer, and at times he saw the angel of the Lord, or the holy martyrs, his patrons, fighting for him at the head of his army.

Aided thus by the divine protection, he overcame barbarous nations more by prayer than by arms.
