+AMDG+

Praise the Lord! You will notice a couple different contributions to the Bulletin on this page from now on. Donna Schuld, our RE Coordinator, Deacon Greg Rotherham and myself will be offering reflections on a rotating basis. The upcoming Gospel readings, general catechesis and highlights from our various fields of ministry will be included. I hope you enjoy the variety and come to learn more about your Catholic faith. Now & Forever!

Pax Christi,
Fr. Quinn

Gathering Together in a Common Purpose

Our readings this weekend remind us that long before contemporary politicians used the concept of change as a campaign mantra, the command to change one's lifestyle and priorities has been central to our Christian experience. The first reading recounts how the Israelite community grumbled and even wished they had stayed in Egypt, to which the Lord responded with a new form of bread for them to eat – manna. Next, St. Paul advises the Ephesians to "put on a new self, created in God's way in righteousness and holiness of truth." In the Gospel reading, Jesus tells the crowd, "Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life...."

All this talk of change can be intimidating because it demands that we give up something in order to make room for something new in our lives. It calls us out of our comfort zones and into the real world with real people. Recently our parish hosted a service mission camp called F.I.A.T., which stands for "Faith in Action Today." We were blessed to have 18 middle and high school students join us for four days of serious weeding and yard work for some of our parishioners. And, unlike the Israelites in the desert, not one grumble was heard from the group, even in hot temperatures.

Along with work we made time for Mass, Adoration, Confession, and the Rosary. Guest speakers also gave them ideas to think about, like how we can recognize the Holy Spirit in our lives and why beautiful art draws us to a closer relationship with God. Lisa Urick, our Youth Minister, has been leading F.I.A.T. for four years now and does a great job at directing students to look for meaning in their service to others. As adults we realize it can be challenging for youth to give up their free summer days for unpaid work in the hot sun at strangers' houses. Hopefully these four days of service have strengthened their commitment to their Catholic faith. In a world that treats our faith with indifference and sometimes disdain, gathering together in a common purpose helps us carry on and trade in our worries for hopeful smiles.

As I look forward to another year with the Religious Education program here at St. Agnes, I'm hopeful that all our students from last year can return, along with new faces. We have been brainstorming about new ways to engage the students and teach them about the beauty and the truth of our Catholic faith. If you have ever wanted to become a teacher, we have an opening for someone to teach Third Grade with us. Please contact our office for more information.

God bless,
Donna Schuld
Religious Education Coordinator

Correction

"Keep holy the Sabbath Day" is the third commandment, not the fourth as was printed in last week's bulletin.

Raising Vocations Is Counting on You

A spiritual family needs spiritual leaders. That is why the Raising Vocations Collection is so important. By now, you most likely received a letter from Bishop Ricken requesting your help in supporting young men and women on their faith journey. Please return your generous contribution to this collection, using the pledge card and yellow return envelope you received in the mail. A gift of $25, $100, $250, or more will make a huge difference now — and for the future of our Church. Thank you for helping them today, so they may say "yes" to the Lord! Every gift makes a difference. Friends and followers of Jesus support one another!

To make your gift today, visit www.catholicfoundationgb.org/give or call Tammy Danz at the Catholic Foundation at 920-272- 8123.

Inspiration for the Week

Jesus reminds his followers: "Do not work for food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life." We are so often distracted by the world before us, by the here and now. Let us not forget what is eternal. We were made for what is eternal. ©LPi
