Praise the Lord! Thank you to all those who gave so generously to the Growing Vocations Campaign. Your support to foster vocations to the priesthood and religious life is wonderful. Two weeks ago, I had the chance to give a talk to the young men at the Kairos House. This is a one-year program to help move young men toward the seminary and prepare them through classes and formation. It's located over on the East side by Saint Matthews Parish. What a great group of guys!

On another note, thank you to all those who were involved in preparing the school for the academic year. There was a lot of work put into the beginning days and now with almost a month complete, Holy Family School is in full swing. We have had two 9am Masses so far and the students have been prayerful. In addition, our Religious Education program has kicked off and is now underway. Think about supporting this wonderful ministry by attending the chili dinner coming up on the evening of Saturday, September 28th. It was great to go around and bless all the classes on the first Wednesday. Thank you to all the catechists who are selflessly giving of themselves to teach the faith.

With our first weekend Mass merger complete, it seems like everything went well. Thank you to those who helped make that transition possible. We could already observe the difference between the Masses and it was good. Just a reminder that next weekend we will begin our antiphons at the beginning of Mass and at the time of communion. You will also notice the cantors singing the psalms from the ambo. This is a slight difference from where they were previously located. The "why" behind the "what" is that because the psalms are from scripture, their proper place to be read/chanted/sung are from the ambo where the rest of the Bible readings are proclaimed.

Lastly, we will be placing the Saint Michael the Archangel prayer card from the bishop in the front cover of the Breaking Bread missal. Understanding that we have a couple of different translations floating around, we will use the form of the prayer that was given to us by the Chancery. Given that our bishop asked us to be unified in prayer, we will begin in earnest to try to recite the prayer together. May I suggest that the Saint Michael prayer on the large white prayer cards in the pews be used for personal devotion i.e. rosary, silent prayer and the like. The prayer card insert would exclusively be used for our after Mass prayer to Saint Michael the Archangel. You will notice that there are two slight differences in this prayer. The use of "thrust" rather than "cast" and instead of "the power of God," it states, "the divine power of God." Of course, the tradition of praying the Saint Michael prayer goes back to Pope Leo XIII who foresaw the darkness of the 20th century approaching. May the protection of Saint Michael be with us and most especially the Immaculate Heart of Mary, our Country's patroness. We are battling dark forces that do not want the light, love and life of Jesus Christ in our nation. I will announce at the time of the prayer when we have all the prayer cards inserted in the missals. Now & Forever!

Pax Christi,
Fr. Quinn

Inspiration for the Week

The apostles argue, each one claiming to be the greatest of Christ's followers. But Christ shows them who is truly the greatest — a child, one who has no thought of his own importance, one who has no ambition. Let's seek to be like that child.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Mark 9:30-37

When I was a wet-behind-the-ears seminarian, I was sent for an immersion with the poor. For one month, I lived in a home for adults with developmental disabilities. It was a challenge for me because the residents had significant communication issues. A 30-year-old man there named Robin was totally deaf and mute. He had Down's Syndrome. He looked like a Viking, with a shock of red hair and a fine beard. But I felt awkward and disconnected from him. All my normal ways of interacting failed. I resigned myself to the fact that we'd never connect.

Then one morning something amazing happened. He was on the living room floor quietly playing with toys. Watching him from a chair, I sensed Jesus' words float into my mind,

"Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me." (Mark 9:37)

I thought, "Jesus, you must somehow be in Robin." I sheepishly made sure no one else was in the room, and then I spoke in a clear voice: "Jesus, are you there?" Robin did not turn to me and say, "Hi, John. Yes, it's me, Jesus." He kept playing with his toys in silence.

But something changed in me. From that moment on, it was easier to just be with Robin, to joke around with him, to try sign-language with him, to let him be himself, and for me to be myself. His "disabilities" were no longer obstacles to overcome. He became just Robin, my friend.

Who in your life seems awkwardly distant or uncomfortable to be with? Next time you see him or her, quietly invoke the name of Jesus, and see how the barriers disappear in you.
