Praise the Lord! This past week, I attended our annual Clergy Congress. Every year, the priests of the Diocese of Green Bay attend a priest "in-service" to "retool" us for the upcoming year. This year, our speaker gave four presentations on the gift of the Holy Spirit in the Eucharist. He spoke about the four components of our spiritual heritage during the Mass. The common baptism of the lay faithful, the Word of God proclaimed, the Eucharistic prayer and lastly, the service of being sent forth from Mass. Bishop shared with us the upcoming Jubilee year celebrations. 2025 is the year of the Jubilee. Our last Jubilee year was in the year 2000. Now twenty-five years later, we are celebrating a year entitled, "Pilgrims of Hope." Bishop is emphasizing the crucial importance of the Sacrament of Confession. As such, there will be a specific emphasis on the Sacrament of Mercy here at Saint Agnes. With that being said, we will be moving our confession times at the beginning of Advent to 5-6pm on Wednesdays and 8:45-10 on Saturday mornings. This means that there will no longer be confessions after the 6:45am Masses and at 3:15 on Saturday afternoons. The new times are meant to make the Sacrament of Confession accessible to as many people as possible by offering consistent times that are convenient to the faithful. Hope is a difficult virtue to cultivate in our lives if we do not encounter Christ in the Sacrament of Confession. Our Gospel states, "...his face fell, and he went away sad." I have never experienced being fallen or sad after I've left the Sacrament of Confession. To the contrary, I am lifted up and leave happy. In addition to the Jubilee year theme of "Pilgrims of Hope," we will be offering the Sacrament of Confession on Divine Mercy Sunday here at Saint Agnes. Nativity Parish is not able to offer this service on account of the NFL Draft this year and Fr. Matt asked if our parish would be open to hosting this beautiful day. I offered Saint Agnes as the host. Please consider the hope you can receive from the Sacrament of Confession. Take note of the new time changes and consider attending the Divine Mercy Celebration in April. By participating in the Jubilee Year of 2025 and being, "Pilgrims of Hope," we cannot turn away saddened or downcast, but filled with grace and happy to be uplifted by the unconditional love of God. Jesus Christ has died on the cross for our sins and has resurrected from the dead. Death no longer has power over us. We hope in the power of Jesus Christ to bring us closer to Him! Thank you for your ardent faith and hope in our Savior. May God bless you on your pilgrimage of hope. Now & Forever!

Pax Christi,
Fr. Quinn

"Go and Invite Everyone to the Banquet"
Matthew 22:9

World Mission Sunday, celebrated on October 20, is a vital time for all Catholics to support the spread of the Gospel in mission territories. This year's theme, chosen by Pope Francis, is "Go and invite everyone to the banquet," emphasizing our call to bring God's love and message to all corners of the world. The contributions collected on World Mission Sunday are crucial for sustaining the Church's mission in over 1,150 territories where the Church is still young or struggling. Historically, the Church in the United States was once a beneficiary of these missionary efforts, and now we have the opportunity to give back and support our brothers and sisters around the globe. Let us remember that our participation and support help invite countless souls to the feast of God's love.

A second collection for World Mission Sunday will be taken next weekend, October 19 & 20. An envelope is provided in your bi-monthly packet. Additional envelopes can be found near the church doors. Make checks payable to St. Agnes Parish and memo "World Mission Sunday."

Inspiration for the Week

"Who can be saved?" the apostles wonder. Who can be good enough? Smart enough? Holy enough? Jesus reminds them that no one can be — not without asking for help. We all need help to be holy.

Never tire of asking for the help you need.

Dear Parishioners:

We are now offering low gluten hosts as an option for those with Celiac disease and the like. The "low-gluten" host cannot be mistaken for "NO-gluten" host. The low gluten host contains .002% gluten or <20ppm. Our low gluten hosts are ordered through Dewitt Church Goods and provided by a company called Regal. They are produced in strict adherence to Canon Law. A sacrament has two aspects. Its form and substance. The substance of the Eucharist species of the host is required to be bread. Hence the low gluten flour and water to make the host a valid substance. Irritable bowel syndromes vary widely so please consult with your doctor about your specific condition to know if the above percentage is low enough for you. Lastly, the low-gluten host does not come in contact with the rest of the regular hosts at any time. We have a special separate sacred vessel to hold the low-gluten host both in the Tabernacle and on the ciborium. If you require a low gluten host, please receive Most Holy Communion in the priest's communion line as he will have the special separate ciborium with the low-gluten host. It is helpful to come before Mass to let the priest know you will be receiving the low gluten host. Thank you and may God's peace be with you.
