A poor widow also came and put in two small coins worth a few cents. Calling his disciples to himself, he said to them, "Amen, I say to you, this poor widow put in more than all the other contributors to the treasury."

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Praise the Lord! One of the aspects of Catholicism that I've always appreciated is the mystery of the Incarnation. Jesus' teachings are not highfalutin or esoteric. The teachings of Christ are pragmatic and applicable to our daily lives. In today's Gospel, Jesus is really digging into some everyday concerns particularly about His current day experience of religious worship. He addresses scribes and pharisees, the treasury of the temple and even the involvement of widows. Not to mention practical responses to broader ideas of poverty and wealth. Each and every observation speaks to the contemporary livelihood of everyone involved. From the most significant to the least crucial but nonetheless critical. I recently came across lessons of life learned from a media influencer. They reflect biblical principles that may be of service to us. Albeit boarding on self-help, (which Christianity is not!)

- 1) Family and friends are everything. Nourish these relationships, check in on them, and let people know you care, even across distances. The quality of your relationships determines the quality of your life.
- 2) Forgive people--it frees you more than anyone else.
- 3) Everyone was sent to teach you something. Every person you meet holds a mirror to a lesson your soul needs to grow.
- 4) Avoid gossip. Choose words that heal, not harm.
- 5) Trust God and yourself. Identify your core values and live in alignment with them; this may mean setting firm boundaries for yourself and with others.
- 6) Nourish your body. Eating whole, locally grown nutritious foods fuel your energy and spirit. But enjoy that occasional piece of cake without guilt--indulgence coupled with moderation is one of life's joys too.
- 7) Get sunshine daily. It makes the rest of your day--and night--better.
- 8) Until you make the unconscious conscious, it will direct your life, and will call it fate (Carl Jung). Bring awareness to your hidden patterns or they'll quietly script your life story as if it were destiny. (We believe in providence, not destiny by the way.)
- 9) Strong body, strong mind. Move your body daily, lift weights, play sports, and embrace play.
- 10) Strive for three daily wins: a physical win, a mental win, and a spiritual win. A calm mind, a fit body, and a house full of love. These things cannot be bought; they must be earned.
- 11) Cultivate self-mastery. "You have power over your mind--not outside events." --Marcus Aurelius. Focus on God. True strength lies in controlling your response, not the world around you. (We believe in mastery in terms of virtue and vice.)
- 12) Guard your peace. "Anyone capable of angering you becomes your master." --Epictetus. Mastery over self means others don't control your state of mind.

- 13) Be open to Truth, it leads you to God. Listen, reflect, challenge and grow. Cultivate creativity and expansion in your life and embrace new ideas, connection and art.
- 14) Get curious. About your wife or husband, your children and friends and the world around you.
- 15) Approach people and life with love.
- 16) "The price of anything is the amount of life you exchange for it." --Henry David Thoreau. Every choice is a trade of the time God has given to us. Spend them on what truly matters.
- 17) "Thinking is difficult; that's why most people judge." --Carl Jung. What you judge, you cannot understand. Instead, observe, study, and learn.

NOW & FOREVER!

Pax Christi,
Fr. Quinn

A Thank You Received

Love Life ministry would like to thank all who gave generously to our Diaper Drive during October - Respect Life Month. The need continues and with your support we will continue to provide diapers and formula to those in our community who ask for help. As your child's needs change, please keep Love Life in mind. We accept any fresh diapers and unopened formula. Thank you.

Pat Erdmann
Love Life Ministry

Thankful to Serve

As members of St. Vincent de Paul, when we visit our friends in need, we include prayer. We bow our heads and thank God for our blessings and seek guidance through our worries and difficulties. Sometimes the friend is inspired to lead the prayer, which gladdens our hearts. A grateful gentleman seeking rent assistance expressed a strong desire to join our parish. He came to our church picnic and enjoyed meeting people and felt welcome. On the other hand, we recently visited a man who did not want to pray with us - he felt God had burdened him so greatly and abandoned him. We pray for this man and all those most in need of knowing God's love and compassion.

Through your generosity, our St. Agnes SVDP group can continue to assist friends in need financially with rent, utilities, or transportation, and materially with clothing, basic furniture, or household items. Through prayer, love of God, and love of neighbors as ourselves, we can all be grateful for the opportunity to serve those in need around us.

Thank you for supporting the St. Agnes Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society through the second collection today.
