God's Way of Breaking Through

"Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you." These words from Isaiah practically sing themselves off the page. Our first reading this weekend speaks of the marvels accompanying the Incarnation. Light, radiance, riches, and the gifts of kings are all mixed up in this description of the meeting of God and man. What intense feelings this passage must have stirred up in its earliest readers, and now we imagine this familiar story anew with Isaiah's rousing words.

Matthew's Gospel tells of the magi from the east following the bright star to its holding place above Bethlehem. They were uniquely blessed among star gazers of their age. Their reward for watchfulness and perseverance was an audience with the true king. I don't know if the lives of these men were documented after this encounter, but I'd like to think they were changed. We do know they obeyed the Lord's message and left the country without tipping Herod off to the child's location.

Their experience was an epiphany. In Greek an "intense appearance." Epiphanies happen to us all. They surprise us with moments of clarity, beauty, and truth. Bishop Robert Barron refers to this as the Lord's way of "breaking through in your life." It's the follow up to these moments that can shape our future profoundly. Do we recognize God's grace when we have an epiphany? Do we spend time in prayer, seeking a closer relationship with God, seeking the meaning behind our experiences? How do we act on an epiphany? To simply shrug such a thing off is to miss out on a chance to grow.

We all have a place in God's plan for salvation. Being aware of breakthrough moments, whether they're big or small, can remind us that He is calling us every minute of every day to build up the kingdom.

We will be blessed to have Breann Hodge visit our Religious Education classes again in January to teach us to pray the Hail Mary in sign language. We hope this makes an impact on our young people as they learn about different forms of prayer.

May the Lord bless you in 2025!

Donna Schuld
Religious Education Coordinator

Parish Mission Statement

To live, love and serve as a community of God's disciples.

Purchase SCRIP Cards

Turn Everyday Spending into Everyday Earning

How Scrip Works:

1. Buy Scrip Gift Cards

Purchase gift cards at face value through the Scrip program. These are the same gift cards you see sold in stores. Choose gift cards to your favorite restaurants, stores and service providers from the hundreds of vendors available.

2. Earn Rebates

Each gift card has a rebate percentage between 1%-16% that goes to our parish when you circle "Parish" and write "St. Agnes" on the order form.

3. Spend Gift Cards

Use the gift cards instead of cash or credit/debit to pay for your everyday shopping expenses.

Example

You pay:

You get:

St. Agnes gets:

We thank the Lord, for the gift of revealing himself to all nations, and ask that he continue to be revealed in the works of his children.
And so we pray...

One Day in Time: A Prayer of Epiphany

Lord of All Nations,

We long to see your face, to hear your voice.
We keep the faith, and reach out in prayer
But too often, we've failed to find you.

And then, one day in time
You thought to place yourself within reach
In the person of a child as vulnerable as any of us.
King and peasant beheld you
Man and woman
Slave and free
Jew and gentile
For you had come for all.

"Epiphany," we called it

A living manifestation of the God we call on.

We have since known other epiphanies.
We have met you in the faces of our brothers.
The grace of our sisters.
The hand that reaches out.
The heart that weeps for the other.
In the strength of one who protects.
In the gentleness of one who forgives.

We have seen your face.

We have heard your voice.

As broken as we are
As scared and hollowed and sinful
May others see something of you in us,
May they hear the sound of your voice.
May you be revealed to all nations
All peoples on earth.
And may epiphanies abound.

Be born in us, O Lord. Amen.

GOSPEL REFLECTION

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

The Epiphany of the Lord

Matthew 2:1-12

Have you ever wondered why the magi had gold, frankincense, and myrrh? Matthew's Gospel tells us, "Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh" (Matt. 2:11). Why are these things their "treasures"? One possible answer is they were magicians and astrologers, and these three items were the tools of their questionable trade. In offering them to Christ, they demonstrate that they will cease using such items to predict or control life. They place this baby-king, the God of Israel, at the center of their lives, and not their own devices of control, manipulation and prediction.

Isn't that what we need to do, too? Consider, for example, the magical power of money, symbolized by the magi's gold. Seemingly whatever we ask of money, it does. It wields a god-like power over the world. It can predict the future by guaranteeing better outcomes for us — which is why it is such a tempting alternative to trusting in God. The problem is such absolute trust in money enslaves us to the economic forces that make money so powerful. In paying homage to Jesus with "gold" (i.e., tithing), we participate in his authority over (and therefore freedom from) the magical sway of money.

What things in your life do you use to predict or control your future? What in your life seems to give you power over the world? Those are your treasures. Are you tired of feeling enslaved to them? Find a way to open them and give them to Christ, and you will be freer.

— Father John Muir
