Did Jesus Laugh?

Admittedly, this is not the deepest theological question facing us today, but I am still curious about it.

As a starting point, let's look at His family. God the Father certainly delighted in His creation. In Genesis, we know from the creation stories that God stepped back after each "day" and "saw that it was good." He drew particular delight in the sea monsters which He made for His own enjoyment. How could the creator fashion the hippopotamus or the giraffe WITHOUT laughing?

We also know that throughout salvation history, He had joy and delight in certain leaders, at times...Moses, the prophets and King David, "A man after His own heart."

As Pierre Teilhard once said, "Joy is the most infallible sign of the presence of God." God demonstrates joy and since we are made in His image and likeness, then it stands to reason that a sense of humor is part of the human condition.

Back to Jesus, then...the perfect man. In Jesus' time, often the set up to a story was funnier than the punchline. Jesus' method for teaching often had exaggerated set ups. A beam in your eye, pointing out the splinter in someone else's, or a mustard seed growing SO large that birds can nest in its growth. Jesus also had a wit about Him in conversation. After Nathaniel asks whether "anything good can come from Nazareth", a shot at Jesus' hometown, one can picture Jesus' head rocking back, laughing as He says, "Here is a man without guile."

Or how about Jesus' exchange with the woman asking for the healing of her daughter. Referring to a dog, Jesus seems to parry with her and when she responds that "even the dogs get the scraps from their master's table," Jesus heals. One can picture His teasing, knowing He would heal, because of her faith.

Or Jesus' nickname for Apostles, James and John – Boanerges, the "Sons of Thunder," for their bombastic style. I am sure that Jesus used this as a term of endearment, often laughing as He used it.

We know that Jesus had the full range of emotions, weeping when His friend Lazarus died and showing righteous anger while driving the money changers from the Temple. Why then would He NOT have laughter as part of His human makeup?

When He was with children, which was often, He showed delight. Think of kids who make US laugh with their antics. How could Jesus NOT laugh in those situations?

How many Peter examples can we think of where you just know Jesus was patiently smiling, waiting for Peter to catch up on issues? Or how could He NOT laugh at the impulsiveness of Peter... "Let's build tents and stay here," or jumping into the water half naked and swimming to greet the resurrected Jesus? THAT'S a funny scene!

Lastly, the men who act today in the "person of Christ" for us, sacramentally, are successors to Jesus. THEY laugh. Remember Pope John Paul II when the doves were not quite cooperating upon release in the window at the Vatican? OR see how quickly Bishop Ricken is to laugh, or priests, when kids do what they do at Mass. He can't suppress his laughter!

My conclusion: Of course, Jesus laughed! He was the ultimate charismatic man who ever lived. People were drawn to Him for every reason WE are drawn to leaders. While eternal salvation is serious business, humor and laughter can evangelize, clarify, and welcome others into a relationship with Jesus.

A Priest, a Levite and a Samaritan walk into a bar...

May God bless you.

DID YOU KNOW?

Every celebration of Holy Mass requires preparation for a proper disposition.

Those who intend to receive the Eucharist should come to Mass with clean consciences and properly disposed souls.

A proper disposition is fostered by:

- Frequent reception of the Sacrament of Penance
- Observing the required fast from food and drink for at least one hour before Holy Communion, with the exception of water and medicine
- The quieting of mind, heart, and lips prior to the beginning of Mass
- Regular prayer, discussion and catechesis within the family and the regular practice of attending Confession and Mass as a family

The faithful may not receive Holy Communion when guilty of grave sin. Those who are unable to receive Holy Communion for any reason are encouraged to pray the prayer of Spiritual Communion.
