Pastoral Message

Praying the Mass by Bishop David Ricken

As with all things in life, the best things are the simplest and the most obvious. They are often so obvious that we miss them entirely! The treasure of renewal of the Church is already right in our midst. We do not have to invent something new or add more trappings to the Mass. We need to celebrate the Mass of the Lord's Supper with greater awareness and presence of mind and heart. We need to bring our very best to this re-entry every time we celebrate the Paschal Mystery; which means a re-entry into the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the Son of God, the Word through whom all of creation of the universe and all of its parts have been established, the Word become flesh. The Eucharist is bread that is flesh and flesh that is GOD. Now that is a mysterium tremendum, a tremendous mystery, that is at once highly attractive and at the same time earth shattering and very terrifying!

The way into living and celebrating the Mass well is to enter each Mass with greater presence of mind and heart to the words that we are saying or are being recited publicly and the actions that we are engaging in at the present moment. In other words, as much as possible, we need to pay attention to what is going on at every moment and become absorbed in the flow of the Sacred Liturgy by being truly present to the presence of God in each and every word and action. We can do this with calm and prayerful attention to what is unfolding. In this simple, present moment exercise of attention, we can begin to notice the presence of the Holy Spirit as he vivifies the sacred words and actions in which we are so humbly engaged — moment by moment, word by word, action by action. Whether as priest celebrant, newly initiated Catholic in the pew or a veteran of Mass attendance for a whole lifetime, it is never too late or too early to enter into the beauty of the Mass.

We must keep in mind that the Mass is all about offering to the Father the gifts of our lives on each given Sunday or every day at daily Mass. We give all glory and honor in, through and with Jesus Christ as he offers himself, his own body, as a sacrificial lamb, in union with the Holy Spirit.
