SUNDAY OF EASTER

Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day." - Lk 24:45-46

Pastor Dan's Weekly Message

GOSPEL MEDITATION - ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

We often act out of ignorance. Armed with the best of intentions, we think we are seeing clearly and correctly, but we are not. We don't always understand the full meaning of things and only perceive part of the truth. Hence, our judgments and actions can be impaired by myopic, incomplete or erroneous perceptions. The meaning of life, understanding of human experience, and negotiating life's challenges can all become skewed without proper understanding and vision. The resurrection of Christ is the corrective to our incomplete and limited view of life. Looking at things with the eyes of faith brings a depth of clarity and understanding to how we see God, ourselves, others, and the world.

Even the disciples struggled with their limited understanding and ignorant perceptions. It was only when Jesus opened their minds to understand the Scriptures that their eyes were opened. It was their "aha" moment when everything clicked. We all want the substance of our lives to come together, make sense, and have meaning. This is easier to achieve when things are going positively and life is good. It is when suffering, disappointment, death, hardship, and injustice enter the picture that things can become unsettled and disoriented. Our faith in the goodness and love of God is tested. We tend to shift our focus on these difficult and challenging moments and do not see them within the greater picture of how God intends life to unfold. We can gain, from the passion and resurrection of Christ, the clear vision we need in order to move away from ignorance to enlightenment.

We need our "aha" moment when everything comes together and clicks. It can come in a fleeting instant when we feel totally connected with God, where we find ourselves, others and all of creation. It is a moment when all is right and good, regardless of how difficult our journey. Our "aha" moment assures us that God is here, right with us, in us and around us bringing us a gift and blessing we can receive nowhere else: peace. In those brief sacramental encounters when we are lifted up out of ourselves and centered, we can hear God say, "peace be with you," and we feel secure. It's all okay. The resurrected Christ has the power to bring this gift to us. Some people, as they are facing their deaths, remark about this peace. When looking into the window of eternity, they experience a depth of joy and are amazed at God's goodness and closeness. We are called to be witnesses to this Good News. ©LPi

Stewardship: Belong, Believe, Become

What does it mean to BELONG? When you think about how you belong to your family, what comes to mind? What makes you feel like you belong? When you boil it down, belonging to our families is ultimately a sense of identity, isn't it? Belonging to this faith community is similar to belonging to our families but it has its beginning in belonging to God:

"Before I formed you in the womb I knew you, and before you were born I consecrated you; I appointed you a prophet to the nations." Jeremiah 1:5

Just as God created Jeremiah to fulfill a specific purpose, God has created each of us for a specific mission. Understanding that God is the Creator (aka Owner) and we are simply the stewards, means that everything in our lives is a gift from God. It's a beautiful truth that God has placed us together in this faith community to complement each other - we belong first to God then to each other! From "Stewardship: Living a Biblical Call" by Bernard Evans, he says "Being responsible stewards of our personal lives is a necessary part of our effort to be in a loving relationship with God who formed us to be what we are daily becoming. Personal stewardship is putting ourselves in a position to do the great things that God calls us to do in our family, community, church, and world. It is about developing and utilizing for God's purposes the abilities and gifts the Creator already has placed within us." We truly belong to God and He delights in the ways we steward our lives according to His will.

To God be the Glory, Kelsey - kdemarais@stpaulgenesee.net

Keep your eyes open for the pinwheels that will be around the grounds of the church! Pinwheels for Prevention is a national symbol for Child Abuse Prevention. Our community recognizes the right all children have to grow up in safe environments free from abuse. This year we have posted blue pinwheels to raise awareness for how we as a Church work to prevent child abuse through our Safe Environment programs and to encourage everyone to work together to keep our homes, schools, parishes, and communities safe environments for our children!

Fun Facts for Catholic Kids 'of ALL Ages Why is it so hard to understand the Scriptures?

In today's Gospel – Luke 24:35-48, we hear the account of two of the disciples meeting Jesus after his resurrection. They didn't recognize him until they broke bread together. Then Jesus helps them to understand the words of the Old Testament; everything written in the law of Moses, the prophets and psalms had to be fulfilled. Jesus "opened their minds to understand the Scriptures".

Do you ever feel like it's hard to understand Scripture? I found an explanation that may give kids of ALL ages some insight into better understanding the Bible.

Jesus' disciples, the men who lived with Him, ate with Him, traveled with Him, and who did EVERYTHING with Him, didn't understand the scriptures.

Those men didn't understand. Many of them ended up WRITING scripture. Matthew, Mark, John, Peter, James, and Jude were all disciples and all wrote parts of the New Testament. And even they didn't understand all of the scriptures.

(Today's Gospel) made me feel that I wasn't smart enough, or that I didn't try hard enough, or that I don't love God enough. It's none of that!

Today's Gospel tells us that even the disciples needed Jesus' help to understand the scriptures.

The solution is easy, we just need to ask. We can ask God before we even start to read, that He would help us to understand what He has to say. We can pray when we read something we don't understand. We can ask our parents, grandparents, teachers if we need some extra help. Fr. Dan does a great job each week explaining the Sunday Scriptures. We can also ask the Bible, by looking at the verses around the one that confuses us.

Sometimes reading the Bible can be really difficult. But that doesn't mean that there is anything wrong with you. It just means you are human. Just like me, your parents, and even the 12 disciples. And just like the disciples, we all need God's help.

God wants us to understand. And all we need to do is ask Him for help. Source: ministry-to-children.com

God bless — Amy Golden aldgolden@gmail.com

The Gift of Sunday making your experience more meaningful

Idea for Living it Out: Take a break from the iPhone, television, stereo and computer, and let your mind rest in the silence. "Be Still, and know that I am God!" (Psalm 46:11). Moreover, post a message regarding your electronic sabbatical to encourage others to do the same. Visit a library or bookstore to select a book or audio-book, and set aside quiet time for a journey of imagination. Parents or older siblings might even take turns reading the story to younger children.

JOY for the EUCHARIST

The two disciples in today's Gospel recount how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. He had risen, they didn't expect to see Him and yet there He was! He wished them PEACE. They were startled and terrified – that is understandable! When they recognized Him, they were incredulous for joy and amazed – well of course they were!

When we receive the Body of Christ at mass, are we incredulous for joy and amazed? Or do we take the Eucharist for granted and act out of ignorance like Peter's audience in the first reading? Join us over the next few weeks to learn more about the mystery and gift of the Eucharist so that we may approach the altar WITH JOY. Allow your mind and heart the time to take in the wonder and the grace of God's gift of Himself to you every time you open your hands to receive the Eucharist.

St Cyril of Jerusalem said: "Do not, therefore, regard the bread and wine as simply that, for they are, according to the Master's declaration, the Body and Blood of Christ. Even though the senses suggest to you the other, let faith make you firm." And, just as His disciples, incredulous with joy!

WHY DO WE DO THAT? CATHOLIC TRADITION EXPLAINED

Question: Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer: For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: "It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession" (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child's "First Confession" can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their "First Confession" and "First Communion" help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church. ©LPi

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

When the greeting "Peace be with you" is sincerely offered to a person, it can resonate very deep within, bringing comfort and reassurance. When someone possesses the power to bring peace, it brings us to a place of safety and fills us with joy. The resurrected Christ has this power. God can open our minds so that we can more fully understand the meaning of Sacred Scripture and God's compassionate, loving, tender, and untiring embrace constantly present and offered to people throughout history. Without the anchor of truth that only God can provide, we can easily become startled and terrified at the sight of what life brings us. Being open to God's offer of peace, we can turn away from old habits and short-sighted vision and experience the gladness and joy of God's gift. Only then can what is wounded and broken be mended and reconciliation achieved. We are the resurrection witnesses called to proclaim the Good News. ©LPi
