Father Dan's Weekly Message

LIVE THE LITURGY - INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

What does it mean to be God's servant? In essence, it means being willing to call the world back to its childlike innocence, showing all that a joy-filled playfulness has a place in life. The servant of God serves to foster the Kingdom of God. God's kingdom is not a sterile, unhappy, strict, and rigid reality. It is quite the opposite. It is a kingdom devoid of jealousy and selfish ambition where peace, gentleness, mercy, and good works abound. To be a servant of this kingdom means that selfish ambition must be set aside so that others can be first, and justice pursued at all cost. The prayer of this kind of servant is not focused on self-advancement or need. Rather, the servant's prayer seeks to detach from self-concern in order to be used by God. In this way, we who are servants can be inspired, guided, empowered, and led by God. We can then be used to lay the cornerstones of the kingdom: faith, hope, and love. It is upon these that God's firm dwelling is built. Accepting this call may place us last in the world's eyes but first in God's. ©LPi

Divine Mercy Cenacle Starts September 21st

What is a Divine Mercy Cenacle?

The purpose of the Divine Mercy Cenacle is to experience the beauty of the Catholic faith through the message of Divine Mercy. Participants will learn more about the Eucharist and the Divine Mercy message and devotion through a structured program that incorporates prayer, study of the Sacred Scripture, and the Diary of St. Faustina.

We invite you to join us on this journey to live the Divine Mercy Message. The group will meet at St. Bruno Parish on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays of the month from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. starting on Sept 21st. It is open to both men and women. Participants will need a Bible and a Cenacle Formation Manual ($13). The Catechism of the Catholic Church and the Diary of St. Faustina will be used as resources (both accessible free online). If you are interested in joining, please contact one of the co-facilitators: Julie Hribar (262) 200-2424 or Karen Freres, (309) 751-7646.

Circle of Life Bereavement Ministry

St. Bruno's Circle of Life is looking for new members to help with our ministry. Our mission is to offer support and comfort to those who are grieving. We hold several meetings per year, only as needed. Our activities include sending cards on the anniversary of the death of loved ones, providing materials for those who are mourning, and offering an 8-week bereavement support group in the spring/summer. One of our favorite activities yearly is to make angels for those who attend the Mass of Remembrance, a special liturgy hosted each year in Nov. For more information about our ministry, please contact Sandy, 262-968-4422 Peggy, 262-424-4567

Child and Family Ministry

Fun Facts for Catholic Kids of ALL Ages

Faith Formation Classes started last Sunday for grades Kindergarten through 8th grades. This week starts a new series of articles, introducing our amazing group of dedicated catechists.

Let us begin with our middle school team. We are excited to have two new catechists leading our Middle School EDGE team! Here are brief introductions—in their own words:

Tony Zignego and his wife, Katy Zignego, have been members of St. Bruno's since 2012. Tony and Katy enjoy raising their three daughters (Francesca-7, Sara-5, Emilia-5). Tony is a third-generation co-owner of Zignego Company, Inc. and currently oversees safety and human resources at the Waukesha based construction firm. Tony is the author of the 2009 historical book, Milwaukee's Italian Heritage: Mediterranean Roots in Midwestern Soil.

Hello! I am Toni Steinhart. My husband, Jeff and children, Abby (14), Thomas (12) and Oliver (4) are new members to the St. Bruno Parish. We are very happy to join your faith family and look forward to growing closer to all of you. Thank you for having us! I will be co-teaching the EDGE program this coming year and look forward to meeting the middle school kids and guiding them along their path toward becoming responsible Catholic adults.

Middle school faith formation uses a curriculum called EDGE. This is a "youth group" style of education which provides an engaging opening activity, a proclamation of the lesson, a small group activity or discussion, and a closing prayer. The lessons provide sound Catholic theology found in the Catechism of the Catholic Church, Bible citations, and also tackles the questions middle schoolers ask.

God bless — Amy Golden aldgolden@gmail.com

Adult Formation

Cultivate PEACE

[T]he wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace. Giving glory to God every single morning, getting to know Jesus, and cooperating with the work of the Holy Spirit all cultivate peace.

Speaking and listening to God in prayer, immersing yourself in Scripture regularly, participating in community within the Body of Christ, telling others about how God works in your life: all of these are ways to cultivate peace and good fruit in your life when you are intentionally living your faith, placing Christ at the center, instead of after the "to do" list. Those bolded actions above? They represent the fruits of being in a small faith sharing group. Think about joining a group this fall; see the list on the website. There are morning, afternoon, and evening options, in person and virtually. Add a new habit this fall to CULTIVATE PEACE in your life.
