Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

God delights in you. How do you feel when you hear that? Delight usually comes with an exuberant flow of joy that seemingly arises from one's toes with the expression of great glee. Reflecting upon the deep measure of joy God has in us can be a source of joy for ourselves. Delight is infectious. A very young brother and sister were playing on the beach when the all too familiar ice cream truck made its daily rounds. The boy shook with excitement and delight as he took his sister's hand and exclaimed, "The ice cream man is here, isn't it great!" As they ran off toward the truck, one could hear the girl reply, "Yeah, I can't wait!" The experience of a child's delight in something so simple as ice cream, lifts our spirits from our burdens and transports us to the lighter, more innocent side of life.

Life is not meant to be a burden. Believe it or not, God actually wants us to be happy! In fact, the wedding feast at Cana shows us that God even puts His blessing on our happiness. It is okay to celebrate the wonder of ourselves and others. Life is good. It is always interesting to note that Jesus saves the good wine until last. You would think it would be the other way around. The superb quality of Jesus' wine points to the superior quality of life we find in Christ. It is not a life of burdens but a life of wonder and delight! In Christ, we are lifted from the superficial and mundane to a life of purpose, hope, and love.

God is with us through the long haul, through the challenges and sorrows as well as the successes and accomplishments. In spite of the fact that we often wander from the path, God's celebratory delight in us remains. As spouses are asked to remain faithful to each other through whatever life brings, God remains faithful too. This promise remains through this life and into the next. All we have to do is take the advice of Jesus' mother to heart when she says, "Listen to him." This wisdom saves us from foolishly giving in to the illusion that we can make better wine than Jesus. ©LPI

GET AWAY ON RETREAT in 2022 The Redemptorist Retreat Center, located in Oconomowoc, set on beautiful, peaceful Crooked Lake, offers mens' and womens' silent weekend retreats each year. This year's theme is "Healing in a Wounded World." How do we return to the basic gospel values so as to bring a sense of healing not only to the world but to each of us? Our recent experience of isolation and separateness reminds us of the need for Jesus and encountering him through a community that reaches out to one another with care. It is our human interaction, based on gospel values, where we begin any healing process. This retreat will offer the values and possible ways to address this inner longing of our hearts. Read more and find dates: redemptoristretreat.org. There are other retreats offered, including Days of Reflection and Prayer. Or make a personal retreat: "Exploring Mindfulness Silent Retreat – Come to the Quiet," February 14-17. To register by phone call 262-567-6900. To register by email rrc@redemptoristretreat.org. Give yourself the gift of quiet time with our Savior in 2022.

WELCOME TO ST. BRUNO PARISH

Welcome! We are happy to have you join us at Mass. If you are visiting, looking for a new parish or just need more information about the Catholic faith, simply visit our website at www.stbrunoparish.com, call us at 262-965-2332 or email at stbruno226@gmail.com.

Eternal Father, We praise you for sending your Son to be one of us and to save us. Look upon your people with mercy, for we are divided in so many ways, and give us the Spirit of Jesus to make us one in love. We ask this gift, loving Father, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. www.catholic.org

Human Concerns

The LORD delights in you.

The words of the prophet Isaiah spoken so many years before the Messiah arrived are true for all of God's people:

For the LORD delights in you.

Please read that again.

For the LORD delights in you.

In. YOU.

YOU who are blessed with unique gifts - Paul says to each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. Start this year off pondering those gifts that were given to you so they could be shared with others. In John's Gospel today, the same One who turned water into wine, delights in you. He is delighted when you share your gifts! It bears repeating: For the LORD delights in you.

Giving through We Share!

3 Important Lessons We Can Learn From The Wedding At Cana

The story about the wedding at Cana is important because it was the first miraculous sign that Jesus gave. It was the first time that Jesus revealed his glory when he walked this earth. It is also when the disciples began to believe in him. When he called them, they knew something was different about him, but this first miracle helped them to really see.

Here are 3 important lessons we can take away from this miraculous event at Cana:

1. Take Your Requests to Jesus but Humbly Accept His Answer

Mary couldn't make Jesus do anything even though she was special to him. No matter how close you feel you are to Jesus, you can't make Him do anything if the time isn't right. Jesus wanted to be sure he was working on the Father's schedule toward the ultimate goal of redemption for his people. We must trust God with our plans and the timing of those plans.

2. Cultivate a Humble and Obedient Heart

When you resign yourself to doing his will, you may also get what you asked him for. He doesn't work on cue, but he does help us in our need. He is a very good and loving Father and Shepherd. Sometimes we need to do things that don't seem to make sense to our human minds.

3. Remember that in God's Hands, the Ordinary Becomes Extraordinary

Ordinary things can become extraordinary when they're blessed by God. God uses ordinary people. The disciples themselves were ordinary people before they were called. Believers today are similar. Before God called you, you weren't necessarily wise by human standards. You weren't necessarily influential.

God chooses the lowly people of the world so that they will not be able to boast in their own goodness. The goal of a follower of Christ should be that Christ becomes more and more noticeable in their life. We want people to see him in us. When people see the courage and wisdom of ordinary people that are simply obeying God it stands out as being from God because their own meager efforts aren't that spectacular. But with God, ordinary things and people become extraordinary.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

In the Gospel today, at the wedding feast in Cana, Jesus reveals himself to his disciples and they began to believe in him. Every day, God also gives us signs of his love and so we also can respond in faith and trust.

Your gift to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul becomes a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them reason to believe and to trust.
