A Lenten message from Kevin, Pastoral Leader & Deacon (kevin.decleene@snc.edu)

What a loving and forgiving role model we have in Jesus, our brother and our friend. As the disciples were gathered behind closed doors in the evening following his resurrection, Jesus burst through their darkness and fear and greeted them. He reminded them (and reminds us) of what he had promised the last time they were together. He greeted them with the simple words, "Peace be with you."

He didn't say, "I knew you'd scatter like frightened sheep." He didn't even mention what he had suffered or their loss of hope. Instead, he blessed them with peace. He invited them to look at the scars left by what he had been through. What can we learn about being loving and forgiving from our role model Jesus?

As we journey through Lent, Holy Week and into the joys of Easter take each day as it is given. The present. Take a moment to pause and be grateful for another day.

Pray, Hope, and Don't Worry - Padre Pio

- Worry is useless. God is merciful and will hear your prayer.

The Sacred Triduum

The summit of the Liturgical Year is the Easter Triduum—from the evening of Holy Thursday to the evening of Easter Sunday. Though chronologically three days, they are liturgically one day unfolding for us the unity of Christ's Paschal Mystery.

The single celebration of the Triduum marks the end of the Lenten season, and leads to the Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord at the Easter Vigil.

The liturgical services that take place during the Triduum are:

Mass of the Lord's Supper, Thursday, April 14, 7:00 PM

Good Friday of the Lord's Passion, Friday, April 15, 12:00 PM

Mass of the Resurrection of the Lord: Easter Vigil, Saturday, April 16, 8:15 PM

VOCATIONS CORNER

Heavenly Father, Lord of the harvest, call forth vocations to the priesthood and consecrated life from our diocese and our families. Inspire men to imitate Christ, the Eternal High Priest, in sacrificial service to your Church. Move the hearts of men and women to offer themselves wholly to You in poverty, chastity and obedience. Send them as laborers for Your harvest. Inspire the faithful to support them with prayers and sacrifice. Raise up holy families who foster openness to your call.
