Thoughts from Your Pastor

We just celebrated the Joyful Day of Christmas. I hope and pray that everyone had a Blessed Day with your families and friends. Today we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. We continue to celebrate the Christmas Season throughout the week.

Next weekend we celebrate the Holy Day of Mary, the Holy Mother of God. We will have Mass at 9:00 am on January 1st. All Catholics are asked to attend Mass that day. Then next Sunday we celebrate the Epiphany of the Lord, January 2nd.

I have been told that I need to have a total knee replacement as soon as possible. I am looking at dates in January to do this surgery. I will be out of commission for at least 6-8 weeks. I first ask for prayers for myself and the doctors. Pray, Pray, Pray, I don't do well with surgeries.

We are preparing to paint the church starting on January 10th which means we need to take down a lot of stuff on January 9th after the last Mass. We will need a lot of help. Please make plans to HELP that day.

I want to give a big shout out to Jennifer Barr and her HELPERS for all their work with our Giving Tree. Thanks to all who provided gifts for the children this year.

Thanks, also, to all who gave money to the victims of the recent tornado. We continue to pray for all those effected by the tornado.

Until next week. Much love and prayers.

Father Tony

Help Mary and Joseph find Jesus

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When Jesus traveled to Jerusalem as a 12-year-old young man, he felt completely at home in the Temple. He enjoyed talking to the teachers about his Father in heaven. His questions and his answers showed how much he loved God.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to feel at home in my church like Jesus did.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Help visitors to your church feel welcomed. As a family or as a class, make cards for visitors, asking them to come back.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

It was the best of times and it was the worst of times. Our families can bring out the best and the worst in us. This is true of our families of origin, the current family of which we are a part, the family of our church, our society, and the like. In all of our family experiences, what stands out as our most challenging memory? Everything human can be found on the pages of family life. But there is also a Divine story to be discovered as well. When life gets difficult and perplexing, today's Feast of the Holy Family stands to remind us that it is not just by human effort that we tread treacherous waters. We have to remember and learn from the Divine effort too. We need this perspective if our love lessons are going to be learned completely and well. We are all works in progress and we all come from homes that are broken by imperfection. In whatever life brings us and in whatever family we find ourselves, may the promptings we feel toward faith and hope lead us to greater love.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The Acts of the Apostles tells the story of St. Stephen, the first Christian martyr. A man filled with grace and power, he worked great wonders among the people. Some Jews debated with St. Stephen but could not match his wisdom and spirit. Eventually, a charge of blasphemy was brought up against him, and the local population demanded that he be tried and sentenced. He was seized and carried before the Sanhedrin.

Despite the danger he faced, in front of the Sanhedrin and his accusers, St. Stephen gave a long speech about the history of Israel and the blessings that God had given upon His chosen people. He talked about how Israel had become disobedient despite God's abundant mercy. This enraged his accusers, and eventually the crowd dragged him out of the city and stoned him to death.

Even in his final moments, St. Stephen displayed great forgiveness and even asked God not to hold the sins of his attackers against them. Hundreds of years after his death, he is still a role model for us to follow.
