Thoughts from Your Pastor

THANK-YOU, THANK-YOU, THANK-YOU to all who came and helped take down Christmas and prepare the church for painting. We had a great number of people who helped. It was much appreciated. If everything goes the way we think the painting will be done on January 21st. So if that happens we will put the stations back up along with everything else on January 22nd at 9:00 am. Deacon Tony will be running this project.

While I am away there will be different priest coming and taking my place on the weekends. Please give them a Big St. Romuald Welcome. If we are back in the church by January 26th then Deacon Tony will be having Communion Services on Wednesday of each week.

Fr. Daniel Dillard will be coming on Tuesday of each week to have School Masses, starting on January 25th. 8:30 am for the middle school and 9:30 am for the Elementary grades. All of this is subject to change depending on the painting of the church.

Congrats to all our 2nd graders who will celebrate their 1st Penance later today. I want to say thanks to our TEACHERS, Mrs. Betty Whitfill and Mrs. Janette Galloway and Mrs. Kim Brumfield for helping teach our children.

Please pray for me on Tuesday and during my rehab. I will keep you and your families in my thoughts and prayers. Hopefully I will be able to be back with you by Ash Wednesday.

Until then, much love and prayers.

Father Tony

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Relationships are hard to clarify. Determining whether people in our lives are simply acquaintances and associates or a deeper level of friend is a journey that takes time. Identifying and celebrating those people who really care about us is a lifelong adventure that involves both moments of intense elation and heartache. Some relationships are more easily definable than others. Two people who are in love must decide whether the love they share has the freedom and depth necessary for lifelong commitments. Other relationships may look like friendship but may harbor grave dysfunction and toxicity. Discernment is needed on all fronts. Our relationship with God also needs definition and discernment. God has taken creation as His spouse and human beings as His children. God delights in us and all that He has made. The wedding feast at Cana demonstrates God's investment in all of this, especially our happiness. Life is a time for celebration and great rejoicing!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Not much is known about the life of St. Sebastian (256 – 287), except that he was a Roman martyr whose name has been mentioned throughout history since early 350.

We see St. Sebastian many times in art, especially from iconic paintings from Guido Reni, Andrea Mantegna and Hendrick ter Bruggen. Historical scholars now agree that a spiritual story has the beloved saint entering the Roman army because only there could he assist Christian martyrs without arousing suspicion on himself. Eventually he was found out, brought before Emperor Diocletian and delivered to Mauritanian archers to be shot to death. Pierced with arrows, he was left for dead, but managed to survive. He recovered from his wounds but still refused to leave.

One day, St. Sebastian took up a position near where the emperor was to pass. He confronted the emperor, condemning him for his cruelty to Christians. This time the sentence of death was carried out, and St. Sebastian was beaten to death with clubs. Today he is the patron saint of athletes.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Mary had great faith in God. She also knew that God could do anything. So when the wedding servers ran out of wine, she knew

Jesus could help. She said, "Do whatever Jesus tells you to do." That's the smartest thing any of us can do.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to do everything you say. I know you can do anything.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

What does Jesus tell you to do in his word, the Bible?

Find out by reading the Bible for 15 minutes a day with your family. You could start by reading Luke.
