Lenten Bible Study

As Lent begins in March, we are offering a Bible Study opportunity each Thursday of Lent, beginning on March 3rd.

We will be studying the Sunday readings each week in a Lectio Divina style prayer and discussion format led by Deacon Tony. Our 1st Session will be on Luke 4:1-13. Please bring your bible with you if you have one. We will be using the NAB Bible. Come join us each week at 6:00 pm in the parish hall to help make your Lenten observance more meaningful and rewarding.

High School Religious Education

*High School Seniors please send your name to Gayle if you want to be included in our Graduate Mass and bulletin insert.

*We have had several asking us as a parish to please post and keep them updated with events, awards and happenings with our youth of the parish. I would love to and am willing to do this but I do not want to leave anyone out. So with this I am willing to make a post or share a picture that involves our youth whether it be at school, vocational school, home school, in the community, an award, sporting event or extracurricular activity but I need the help of parents and others to make sure to include all. So please feel free to send any news to share to Gayle (270-617-1308)-our parish members are so proud of our youth and love to share in their excitement and achievements.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Sue Skillman (Tom Skillman's Mother) and to the family of Dylan Horsely (Kim Brumfield's Nephew)

You are in our thoughts and prayers.

Eternal rest grant unto them , O Lord

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

God clearly reveals his identity as "I am who am." God, who is really beyond all names, is the One who simply "is" as the ground of all being. This ever-existing, uncreated, and all-encompassing presence of unconditional God, who is Love, is very patient as he waits for us to grow and change. God is so near to us that it is easy to miss his presence. As true love requires, God seeks a devoted, intimate, free, and exclusive relationship with each of us. As we walk through the parched, desert experiences of our lives it is easily in our thirst for water and a respite from the heat that we reach for and construct idols that will bring us immediate relief and satisfaction. These false gods, made out of our comforts and earthly desires can quickly take the place of the One who really has first dibs on our hearts. Humans have often wandered far away from God as St. Paul reminds us. In helping each other cultivate and fertilize the ground upon which we walk, God gives us yet another chance to bear fruit and return.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

When St. Oscar Romero was appointed Archbishop of San Salvador in 1977, his country was in chaos. Many people in El Salvador were living in poverty, while a smaller elite group controlled all political and economic power. In 1980, El Salvador broke out in a 12-year civil war that left over 75,000 people dead. St. Oscar Romero set up pastoral programs to assist the victims of oppression. He also became an outspoken advocate for human rights, appealing to the Salvadoran military to stop killing their own citizens.

On March 24, 1980, St. Oscar Romero was murdered while celebrating Mass in El Salvador. A car pulled up outside, and a gunman fired a single shot straight into St. Oscar Romero's heart.

Calling him a "a martyr for the faith" nearly 40 years later, Pope Francis canonized him in 2018. For the occasion, Pope Francis chose to wear the same blood-stained belt that Romero was wearing at the altar when he died.
