High School Religious Education

*High School Seniors please send your name to Gayle if you want to be included in our Graduate Mass and bulletin insert.

*We have had several asking us as a parish to please post and keep them updated with events, awards and happenings with our youth of the parish. I would love to and am willing to do this but I do not want to leave anyone out. So with this I am willing to make a post or share a picture that involves our youth whether it be at school, vocational school, home school, in the community, an award, sporting event or extracurricular activity but I need the help of parents and others to make sure to include all. So please feel free to send any news to share to Gayle (270-617-1308)-our parish members are so proud of our youth and love to share in their excitement and achievements.

K-6th Religious Education April Schedule

Email Prayer Chain Group:

St. Romuald Parish has had an email prayer chain group since 2015. Prayer requests are emailed to prayer warriors who would like to participate by praying for others daily. If you would like to be a prayer warrior, please email Marie Rose at rosejm@bbtel.com with your name and email address or text your name and email address to 270-617-0538. When we receive a prayer request, you will receive an email with the name of the person for whom we have been asked to pray. To request prayers for yourself or someone else, you may use the above info. This is separate from the prayer list at church, although we do pray for all those on that prayer list as well. Currently we are keeping 80+ people in prayer daily. There are 24 prayer warriors in the group.

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

Mercy makes us attentive to the voice of truth. We do not know what ever happened to the woman caught in adultery, after her encounter with Jesus. It is hoped that she found what she needed to feel true sorrow. What we do know is that through his gentle and wise persuasiveness, Jesus puts the Pharisees in their place and opens the door to grace for this child of God. Being exploited and used to test and discredit Jesus, she who is publicly known to be a sinner is now the victim. Jesus never tolerates people being used and immediately rushes to her defense. As the author of mercy, Jesus became her advocate and opened the door for her to God's love. Jesus also stands between us and the harsh, judgmental, and often hurtful stance of our world. He invites us to grace, to leave the sin that binds us, and for which we are often criticized, and pursue a life of virtue and freedom.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Benedict the African (1524-1589), was born in San Fratello, Sicily to Cristoforo and Diana Manasseri, Africans who had been taken as slaves. Some accounts claim that because of his parents' loyal service that Benedict was given his freedom at birth, other sources say that his freedom was granted when he turned 18. At 21 Benedict joined a society of hermits living under the rule of St. Francis of Assisi. Eventually he succeeded his friend, Jerome Lanze, as their leader. When the Pope disbanded the independent hermit society, Benedict joined the Order of Friars Minor and he was sent to Palermo, to the Franciscan Friary of St. Mary of Jesus. There Benedict worked in the kitchens and despite being illiterate and a lay brother (not a priest), he also served as Master of Novices, and as Guardian of the Community. St. Benedict was known throughout his life as a brilliant cook under whose hands food seemed to multiply miraculously, a healer, and a spiritual leader with profound understanding. He is recognized as the patron saint of African Americans.

KIDS CORNER

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

Fit the Gospel message into the empty squares:
You may go now, but don't sin anymore.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

When we do something wrong, God does not want to punish us. God just wants us to stop, learn from our mistake, and make better choices next time. Try to remember that the next time you catch a friend sinning. Instead of tattling, talk to your friend, and gently help your friend do what is right.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to be kind to my friends when they make mistakes. Help me remember that sometimes I make bad choices, too.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

Name one thing you have done wrong. Jesus can forgive you for your mistakes. Try to forgive other people, too.
