THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

Today we celebrate 1st Holy Communion during our 10:00 am Mass. Congratulations to our girls and boys on receiving our Lord Jesus today for the very first time. We are so happy and proud of you. My prayer for you is that you always be filled with excitement in your heart as you receive Holy Communion. I want to say thanks to those who helped in passing on the faith to these children. First to their parents and family members. Then to their teachers, Jeanette and Betty. Thanks to Kim who oversees our Religious Education Program. Once again congratulations to all our girls and boys on receiving their 1st Holy Communion.

I want to share with the parish that Kim Brumfield has decided not to return next year as CRE. Kim has been here at the parish for 20 years. I want to say thanks to Kim for her years of service to the parish. I wish her only the best. Kim will oversee Vacation Bible School in July and her last day will be after VBS.

We are in need of servers here at the parish. Any girl or boy who has completed the 3rd grade is able to serve. If anyone is interested please see me.

It's mowing season! Just a reminder please pick up all items around your loved ones tombstones. All items need to be removed so that proper care can be given to the cemetery.

Until next week, much love and prayers.

Fr. Tony

We will keep a name on this list for a year from the time of their death. If you have a family member not of this parish and you would like to have their name listed please call the office (270-756-2356).

Let us continue to pray for ALL Families who have lost loved ones. May Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord.

We have Journals and Resource Books available in the Church Office for anyone wishing to pick one up. Care Notes are available at the main entrance of the Church. Feel free to take which ever meets your needs.

Pray to end abortion: Join other Catholics and those from other faiths that gather each Saturday at 2nd and Market in Louisville from 7:00-8:00 am (EST) to pray for families entering the abortion clinic. Many children have been saved and mothers spared future grief by this prayer action and support. With God, all things are possible!

Abortion Update: Last week 35 women went into EMW Clinic for abortions at 2nd and Market Street in Louisville. Please pray to end abortion.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the family of Michael Popham, Emily Bland, Jerry Critchelow and Roberta Anthony.

You are in our thoughts and prayers.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord

LIVE THE LITURGY Inspiration for the week

What prevents us from seeing the Lord? We are not used to seeing Jesus in the ordinary, everyday events of our lives. We expect some kind of startling, extraordinary revelation to occur that definitely and unmistakably sends a signal that God wants our attention. We don't expect a visit from Jesus while we are having breakfast, doing the dishes, running after the kids, negotiating a deal at work, or taking a shower! Sometimes when God simply stands on the shore of our lives casually looking for us, we don't recognize him. Did we ever stop and think that God is really and truly interested in the routine, run of the mill events of our lives? So, "what did you do today?" God may ask. Maybe we don't think that God is concerned about such things, or we are so consumed with life's demands that we give it little if any thought. Perhaps we are determined to achieve our own success, desire to control things ourselves or not really sure what God cares about. God is there. One day, out of the blue, God will get our attention and ask, "Do you love me?"

SAINT OF THE WEEK

The story of St. Rose of Venerini (February 9, 1656 – May 7, 1728) is one of having faith in God and his calling in your life. Born in Italy in 1656, she was the daughter of a doctor. Following the death of her fiancé, she entered a convent in the hopes of becoming a nun, but soon returned home to care for her mother after the death of her father. In an effort to keep up her spiritual side, St. Rose invited women of the neighborhood to recite the rosary in her home, and together they formed a sodality.

Unsure of where her life was headed, she sought the spiritual guidance of a Jesuit priest. After much contemplation, she admitted to feeling called to be a teacher in the world, rather than a nun in a convent. Eventually, she moved ahead and opened a free school for girls in 1685. Eventually, she was invited to oversee the training of teachers and the administration of schools in the Diocese of Montefiascone, which then led to being called upon to organize schools in many parts of Italy, including Rome.

St. Rose died in Rome in 1728 amid a number of miracles that many credit to her. The group of women she first prayed with in her home eventually became known as the Venerini Sisters, found in the United States and working among Italian immigrants. St. Rose was beatified in 1952 and canonized in 2006.
