THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

Today we enter into the 5th Sunday of Easter. We also honor our High School Seniors at our 10:00 am Mass with a breakfast to follow the Mass. The Knights are cooking the meal while the parish is providing the meal. We congratulate our Seniors on their upcoming graduation from High School. We wish them the best in the future. We want them to know that St. Romuald is always home for them.

This Tuesday there is a Finance Meeting at 4:30 pm in the Parish Hall. We are preparing the budget for the next fiscal year.

We need more boys and girls to be servers at our Masses. I am having a Training Session for new servers this Saturday at 10:00 am in church. I ask parents to encourage your sons or daughters to be a server.

We continue to pray for our farmers that they will be able to get into the fields and sow the seeds. We pray for favorable weather throughout the year.

Until next week let's pray for world peace and let peace begin first in our own hearts.

Much love and prayers.

Fr. Tony

Pray to end abortion: Join other Catholics and those from other faiths that gather each Saturday at 2nd and Market in Louisville from 7:00-8:00 am (EST) to pray for families entering the abortion clinic. Many children have been saved and mothers spared future grief by this prayer action and support. With God, all things are possible!

Abortion Update: Last week 67 women went into EMW Clinic for abortions at 2nd and Market Street in Louisville. Please pray to end abortion.

READ THE GOSPEL AND COMPLETE A PUZZLE!

Fit this Gospel message into the empty squares:

You must love each other.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus gave his disciples a new rule. He told them they had to love each other, just like he loved them. What did Jesus mean? Jesus was very patient with his friends. He forgave his friends when they let him down. Jesus comforted his friends when they were afraid. Most of all he helped them grow closer to God.

PRAYER

Dear God, help me to love my friends like Jesus did.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will follow Jesus and forgive those who have hurt me.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

The resurrected Christ gives us the strength to do things we can never have imagined. Life will often give us mountains to climb, and we wonder how we will find the energy, ability, and determination to forge ahead. But, with a good dosage of faith and a fervent life of prayer we find ourselves succeeding and ascending to heights that once frightened us. What we realize after we have reached the other side is that this hardship we once saw as an obstacle has become a vehicle for something better and greater. We are stronger. The same is true with the Gospel. The prospect of loving one another may seem idealistic or unobtainable. Yet, when we risk moving beyond just looking out for or helping each other to actually LOVING each other, miracles happen. There is something wonderful that occurs with love. We see people in ways we never saw before, understanding and appreciating each other's journey. Love leads to reverence. Faith is strengthened and we move on to try again.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

Though St. Margaret of Cortona (1247 – 1297) is today known as being an incredibly pious Catholic, she didn't start out that way. Born into a farming family in Laviano, Tuscany, her mother died when St. Margaret was seven. Her father remarried, but life with her stepmother was so difficult that St. Margaret moved out of the home and instead chose to live with a man named Arsenio, though they weren't married. They had been living together for nine years when she gave birth to a son. Knowing in her heart that this wasn't the life that God intended for her to have, she prayed for purity.

One day while waiting for Arsenio, his dog led her into the forest where she found Arsenio murdered. So shocked was St. Margaret that she fell into a life of penance. She and her son returned to Laviano, but still found her stepmother to be as unwelcoming as ever. They then went to Cortona, and eventually her son became a friar.

Three years after her conversion, St. Margaret followed in her son's footsteps and became a Franciscan tertiary. During her life, St. Margaret established a hospital and founded a congregation of tertiary sisters. She was canonized in 1728.
