THOUGHTS FROM YOUR PASTOR

A Big Shout Out to the Knights of Columbus who fixed the breakfast for our High School Seniors and their families this past Sunday. Everything was great.

This Tuesday we have a Pastoral Council meeting at 6:00 pm in the parish hall. There will be 4 members going off the council this June. Anyone interested in serving on the council for a two year term please see me.

I will be celebrating my 33 year Anniversary to the Priesthood on Friday the 27th of May. At times it feels like yesterday and then at times it seems so long ago. I love being a Priest. I love serving the people of God. Over these 33 years the church has changed, some for the good and some for the bad. But I continue to put my trust and hope in the Lord for His guidance. I ask that you please continue to pray for me and know that I pray for you and your families daily.

Next Sunday we celebrate the Ascension of the Lord. It's also Memorial Day Weekend. Hopefully it will be great weather for everyone to be out and enjoying the company of family and friends for cookouts and fellowship.

Summer weather is upon us. Enjoy the outdoors as much as possible. Pray for our farmers and pray for peace.

Until next weekend much love and prayers. Do something nice for someone.

Love and prayers.

Fr. Tony

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

Everyone wants to experience peace. When we look to the world to provide this for us, we can easily get disappointed. We associate peace with an absence of war and conflict, good relationships between neighbors and coworkers, the achievement of success and even the absence of noise! While all of these are worthy endeavors, pursuing them exclusively as a path to experiencing peace sets us up for failure. When we look for peace outside of ourselves, it will never be found. True and lasting peace is something that comes from within and not something we can produce on our own or receive from others. Peace is discovered when we experience an inner wholeness and harmony. It is born of a sense of connectedness with a God who is larger and greater than ourselves, gifting us with His presence. It is the only the peace offered by the Risen Christ that can settle our hearts and calm our fears. Regardless of the degree of turmoil around us, this sense of completeness that Jesus gives anchors our boats and prevents us from sinking.

SUNDAY, MAY 22, 2022 | 6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Rita of Cascia (1381 – 1457) had the opportunity to live her life as a wife, mother, widow, and eventually, member of a religious community. Born in central Italy, St. Rita felt the calling to become a nun, but was pressured at a young age into marriage. During her 18-year marriage to a cruel man, she raised two sons. When her husband was killed in a brawl and her sons died, St. Rita decided to go back to her first love and attempted to join the Augustinian nuns in Cascia. Her status as a widow caused some complications to her entering, but she eventually succeeded in professing vows.

Throughout her lifetime, St. Rita of Cascia was known for her prayerfulness and charity. She also experienced stigmata on her forehead, meditated frequently on Christ's passion, and cared for the nuns of her religious community and those in the lay community who came to her for counsel.

SHARING THE GOSPEL

Jesus wants you to love him so much that you will always do what he asks. Jesus knows that if you put God first, you will have peace. Instead of wanting more toys, you will be happy to share them. Instead of wanting to get your own way, you will enjoy taking turns. You will feel good helping other people.

PRAYER

Dear God, change my heart so that I want to put you and other people first.

MISSION FOR THE WEEK

I will invite a friend over to play. I will share and take turns.
