GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION--Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. The pandemic hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. PLEASE BE GENEROUS! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org or www.custodia.org

As we approach Holy Week and Easter, I thought I would give the parish an update about the music. Holy Week and Easter is my favorite week of the year; and the Choir is singing some excellent music. Palm Sunday, the choir is singing an anthem by Philip Moore "It is a Thing Most Wonderful" as well as a newish setting of the traditional Latin text "Nolo Mortem Peccatoris" by composer Elizabeth Atkinson. Familiar hymns such as "All Glory Laud and Honor" and "O Sacred Head Surrounded" will be sung as well. For the Chrism Mass, the Choir will be joined by the Pinnacle Brass Quintet. Anthems for this Mass are the iconic setting of "Salvator Mundi" by Thomas Tallis, and "O Cruz Fiel (Faithful cross)" by American Composer Leo Nestor. Guest organist Dr. Colin MacKnight will play J.S. Bach's rousing Prelude and Fugue in B Minor for the postlude. For Holy Thursday, the choir is singing "Ubi Caritas" by Maurice Durufle as well as a setting of "Ave Verum" by Belgian Composer Flor Peeters. Good Friday, the organ will be completely silenced and the choir will sing a setting of the Reproaches as well as "Were You There". The Easter Vigil, the choir will join with the Pinnacle Brass and sing Palestrina's beautiful setting of "Regina Caeli" as well as a new piece by Canadian composer Stephanie Martin called "Now the Queen of Seasons". Rosemarie Ochoa, assistant organist, will play the festive "Carillon de Westminster" by Louis Vierne as the postlude for this Mass. New for this year, the choir and the Pinnacle Brass will sing and play for both the 8:30 a.m. and 12:05 Noon Masses on Easter Sunday. The choir will sing "Christ Our Passover" by American Composer Richard Dirksen and "Regina Caeli" for this Mass as well as the beloved hymn "Jesus Christ is Risen Today". Please join us for the Holy Week and Easter Masses. I hope that the music will deepen your prayer and give you joy in the greatest week of the Church's year. ~ Beau Baldwin
