Dear Parishioners,

Pope Francis has used the image of walking together to illustrate the Christian life. In a talk with students from Jesuit schools from Italy and Albania, he said: “Walking is an art; if we are always in a hurry, we tire and cannot reach our destination, the destination of our journey. Yet if we stop and do not move, we also fail to reach our destination. Walking is precisely the art of looking to the horizon, thinking about where I want to go, and also coping with the weariness that comes from walking. Moreover, the way is often hard going; it is not easy. ‘I want to stay faithful to this journey, but it is not easy: listen, there is darkness; there are days of darkness, days of failure, and some days of falling. . . someone falls, falls.’ Yet, always keep this in your thoughts: do not be afraid of failure, do not be afraid of falling. In the art of walking, it is not falling that matters, but not ‘staying fallen.’ Get up quickly, immediately, and continue to go on. . . . But also, it is terrible to walk alone, terrible and tedious. Walking in community, with friends, with those who love us; this helps us; it helps us to arrive precisely at the destination where we must arrive.” In this pandemic, amid the crises in our world, to the everyday personal struggles, we are not alone. We are not meant to “stay fallen.” Let us (re) discover the art of walking. This week and next week, I will be on a “staycation” of sorts. Fr. Jim Thomas will be here for the Masses. I will be back for the Sunday Masses on Labor Day weekend.

Peace,
Fr. Jim

WHO'S MY neighbor?

A new ministry at Holy Trinity helping seniors and homebound stay connected and engaged

In an effort to stay connected with our seniors and homebound parishioners in the parish, volunteers are calling individuals to ask about how the parish might support them. The mission of the Who's My Neighbor ministry is to put our faith in action by staying connected with parishioners who are not able to participate in person at Mass or in parish activities.

One of the activities we plan to begin in September is sending birthday and holiday cards to those we contact. We are excited that students at the school and enrolled in Youth Faith Formation are joining the ministry to write notes and cards for the homebound in the community. Our hope is that this new ministry will include all members of our parish.

How can you be part of this ministry?

1. Join the "Who's My Neighbor Committee - make calls, send cards or notes, or make up holiday gift bags
2. Donate birthday or holiday cards
3. Donate stamps

Cards and stamps can be delivered to the parish office or left at the kiosk on the weekend. For information about the ministry and how to help, contact Barbara Cempura at 618 698-1858 or at bcempura@gmail.com or Dennis Crook at 314 452-5467 or dpcrook2002@yahoo.com.

Jesus then said to the Twelve, "Do you also want to leave?" Simon Peter answered him, "Master, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and are convinced that you are the Holy One of God."

Jn 6:67-69

Vocations Corner

“My vocation was born during a painful time. When I was 15, my mom was abducted and held for ransom in Haiti. In the confusion and despair that followed, I prayed “Lord, your Son died on a Friday and rose on a Sunday. My mother was taken this Friday – would you return her this Sunday? In exchange, I will give you my life.” Thanks be to God, she was returned to us. I believe this experience was the moment when God began to prepare me for my vocation. He brought many people into my life along the way to teach me how to pray and form me in my faith. I eventually said yes to his call and entered seminary. The rest of the journey wasn’t without its challenges, but by then I had learned to turn to the Lord and trust in his guidance.

Fr. Ronald Angervil; Diocese of Catharine, Ontario; Columbia Magazine May 2021

New to our parish? We pray that you may find warmth, encouragement and spiritual growth in our parish and look forward to getting to know you in the weeks and months ahead. May God bless you and your family! You can register on-line through our website at www.holytrinityil.org anytime

FROM DEACON ART

Will you also leave me? When many of his disciples were leaving him, Jesus turned to the apostles and said, ‘Will you also leave me?’ These words are addressed to us too. It’s not the Lord who leaves us, but we who may leave him. But why would we want to leave the Lord, who alone has the words of eternal life? we need to make our own Peter’s profession of faith. Every Sunday we get a chance to do so. We need the Lord to strengthen our faith. We also need to confirm one another. Lord, confirm our decision to stay with you. Draw us closer to you in bonds of trust, so that we may follow you in love and freedom.
