Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday, the 4th Sunday of Advent falls on 24 December. The fourth week of Advent begins and ends on the same day. It's ready-or-not time. We're either prepared for the forthcoming festivities or we cut our losses. The Gospel for this Sunday is the story of the Annunciation. Do you think Mary was prepared for a visit by Gabriel? I think not. She was afraid. She did not know what was being asked of her. She had her doubts. Yet, she trusted in the angel's message. She knew that God was not going to let her down and out. She was going to trust that God's will was for her best and the best for all. Mary is here to show us the Way—the Way that is her Son. I pray that all have a Merry Christmas! Enjoy the time with your families and friends.

Merry Christmas, Buon Natale, Feliz Navidad, Joyous Noel, Froliche Weinachten, Wesolych Swiat, Linksmu Kaledu, Vesel Bozic, Maligayag Pasko, Eid Milad Majid, S Rozhdestvom, Feliz Natal, Nollaig Shona!

Peace,

Fr. Jim

Gospel Meditation

Life is troubling. Who among us has not struggled with anxiety and difficulties, sometimes massive ones? I certainly have, as have many of my loved ones. If we do, does this mean that we don't trust the Lord or just need to toughen up?

I don't think so. How encouraging for us anxious and troubled souls to hear Luke describe the Blessed Mother Mary in these words, "But she was greatly troubled at what was said." An archangel has visited her. An inconceivable promise has been made to her. Her life has become wildly unpredictable, perhaps more so than any person before or since. The first point for us: the Lord is with her precisely when she is troubled. Her anxiousness and God's presence are not mutually exclusive. Christianity is not about a trance-like robotic indifference. It's about the presence of divine love. Even in — especially in — troubled circumstances.

Our troubled soul can become our greatest treasure. What seems so troubling at first to Mary becomes the best possible thing, Jesus, the Savior and Lord, is now her son. All the difficulties and troubles remain, and yet her movement into the fullness of God is accelerated. What is troubling you right now? This scripture invites us now, this week, to hear the Lord's messenger say to us what he said to Mary, "Do not be afraid! You have found favor with God."

DECEMBER FOOD PANTRY NEEDS

This month, the FVH Food Pantry is making a plea for personal hygiene items like, soap, tooth brushes & toothpaste, men's/women's deodorant, shampoo, conditioner, etc. Drop off in the bin outside the parish office.

Vocations Corner

Today we again hear God's asking of Mary to be the Mother of the "Son of the Most High". Her total self-giving reply of "Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord. May it be done to me according to your word" is the greatest example of "listening" to the Lord's call. Do you hear a call from the Lord to be a sister or priest? In this season of giving, "give" some time to quiet reflection and "hear" what the Lord is asking of you.

SEEDS FAMILIES

We will no longer be offering Seeds as a drop off option at the 10:30 Mass. Instead, please allow your 3-5 year olds to dismiss with the older children leaving for Children's Liturgy of the Word. We'll include them in CLW and bring them back at offertory.

The 2023 Catholic Service and Ministry Appeal

In November, the Invest in Kids Act that provided Empower Illinois tuition scholarships that support some families in our school was not renewed. Last year, we received $39,450 in scholarship money. In order to be able to continue to support our students financially, we have placed a Tuition Angels giving tree in the gathering space. Please consider taking an angel off the tree and donate one of the given amounts or an amount of your choice. The school and families that need assistance truly appreciate your generosity during this time of year.

(PRACTICING) CATHOLIC - RECOGNIZE GOD IN YOUR ORDINARY MOMENTS

By Colleen Jurkiewicz Dorman ©LPI

What Is Your Fiat?

Are you an anxious people-pleaser prone to overcommitting yourself? Welcome to the club! We have slogans, and for your convenience I've listed them here: "Sounds great!" "No worries!" "Absolutely, I can do that, not a problem!"

These are your go-to responses for when someone requests a favor that is a huge inconvenience, but you would rather die than disappoint. It's not exactly disingenuous — it's just a little neurotic. Again, welcome to the club.

You know who doesn't belong to this club? The Blessed Mother. For many reasons, I'm sure, but the biggest one is that she's always completely up-front. Take her response to the Angel Gabriel: "Let it be done."

If there are more powerful words than these, I can't think of them now. And yet, as responses go, this certainly isn't an enthusiastic one. There was never a human creature more willing to obey God than Mary, full of grace, so it makes it all of the more striking that her response to Gabriel is this reserved — and it makes it all the more certain that she means exactly what she says.

Let it be done.

Not: Yes, this is exactly that I asked for!
Not: Nope. This sounds awful. Count me out.
But precisely this: If God is asking, my answer is yes.

The Angel Gabriel visits us all, in a way, at some point or another, bearing news we did not expect. When we can say, in the face of that uncertainty, "Let it be done," we are embracing our calling as disciples. We are becoming like Mary.

"Behold, I am the handmaid of the Lord." — Luke 1:38

The True Meaning of Christmas | Lukas Storyteller

Christmas is coming and our friends Peter, Agnes, Paul and Anna expect to receive many gifts. But when they caught in one of their antics, Lukas and Noah will help them understand the true story of Christmas and how the birth of the Son of God should change our hearts.

Christmas | Sacred Art

Join Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they look at the painting Adoration of the Shepherds by Gerard van Honthorst to celebrate the Nativity of our Lord. This famous painting reveals the Christ Child as the light that has come into the world and also depicts the Blessed Mother, St. Joseph, and the shepherds to be models of adoration to our humble Lord who came as a helpless baby.

SCHOOL News

In Grade 2, the girls made wreaths of candles to wear on their heads as St. Lucia did when she brought food to the poor under the cover of darkness. The Swedish tradition is to celebrate St. Lucia's compassionate and generous spirit by delivering treats to family, as our Second Grade students shared treats with each classroom here at Holy Trinity

St. Lucia's Day is sometimes called the Festival of Lights. The boys participate in the celebration as "star boys" and made traditional Swedish star hats to bring hope and light on one of the longest nights of the year.

Fr. Jim challenged students to be like St. Lucy and be a light to the world as Jesus calls all of us to be.

We love how St. Lucia's Day lights up our school community!
