REMEMBER
in your prayers

SICK IN THE PARISH: Willie Kessler, Vernon Brinker, Debbie O'Malley, Bob Hayden Sr., Allen Gephardt, Rich Skiljan. We ask the Lord to bless all those who are sick or injured in our community, those who are in a nursing home, and those homebound.

HOMEBOUND/SHUT-IN: Please keep in mind if you or someone you know is convalescing or returning from the hospital and would like Communion at home, please call the rectory.

PRAYER CHAIN: Don't forget to get help from our Prayer Chain. It's been around for a while now, so it's easy to take it for granted and overlook the POWER of united prayer. When you have a pressing need, please don't forget to make use of this resource of people who care and want to be there in prayer with you. Call Laverne Schwoeppe at 636-742-5754 or 636-288-6382. She will get the Prayer Chain members to pray with you. You do not have to be a member of this Prayer Chain to make a prayer request.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Happy 2nd Sunday in Ordinary Time! How fitting we get to hear from the 2nd chapter of John's Gospel, and the transformation of water into wine...and not just a little wine...somewhere between 120 to 180 gallons of the best vintage! What a fitting way to demonstrate God's plan for married couples this is. Jesus lifts up and transforms into a sacrament, and at the same time He reveals the joy that He wishes to fill families with from their very foundation.

We also recognize in our readings that everyone is called to the marriage feast that God has prepared for all who respond to His call. The Church has been born from the wound in the side of Jesus on the Cross, as He sleeps the sleep of death. This is prefigured in Adam's side being opened to give being to his bride, Eve. Now, the Church and all her members strive through this life to ready themselves for the coming of the Bridegroom in His glory.

The Men's Sodality met this month and it has been agreed upon that the 2022 Chicken Dinner will be a modified sit-down meal in our Parish Hall. The patrons will receive their food cafeteria style along the steam tables with the men serving. Then as they are seated, men will come around with buckets of additional chicken and coleslaw and other items if necessary to keep people satisfied.

The 8th graders will be participating in a Pro-Life Mass this coming Friday the 21st at Our Lady of Lourdes. Most of the area schools will join in this great sacrifice and prayer that Roe V. Wade might be overturned, and that human life might be protected from conception to natural death.

We get closer and closer to the official celebration of the new addition to church. Archbishop Rozanski is scheduled to visit us on Saturday, January 29th to cut the ceremonial ribbon at 5:15 pm and have the 5:30 pm Mass. There will be a blessing of the addition immediately following Mass and a reception in the Parish Hall. Please join us for a joyful and historic evening for St. John's.

Coincidentally the weekend of the archbishop's visit is also the weekend when the archdiocese is beginning to introduce the strategic planning initiative for the diocese entitled, "All Things New." We will have a letter in the bulletin that weekend from Fr. Chris Martin, the priest that has been tasked to coordinate this colossal effort for our diocese.

As a side note, I asked the decorating crew to leave the nativity scene in our vestibule through the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord which occurs on February 2nd. This is the old date for the ending of the Christmas season, and commemorates both the sacrifice made to redeem Jesus when He was forty days old, and the purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

May God bless you and be your Strength,

Father Foy

Did you know that there is a way for many couples who have been married outside the church to have their marriage made valid in the church? It is called a convalidation. If one or both of the spouses has an annulment to work on, then the annulment needs to be granted beforehand, but a convalidation can be pursued so long as both people are free of impediments. A couple can simply reach out to a priest or deacon and express that they are interested in having their union recognized as a Catholic marriage, and the couple can then sit down with the priest or deacon and begin the process. If both spouses are baptized Christians, their union in the church would then be a sacrament, and if a non-baptized spouse converts at some point – their marriage is then also raised to the level of a sacrament. In either case, this means that you receive grace through your marriage that assists you on your path to heaven. You are likewise able to help your spouse to grow in the grace of God. Last but not least, you provide a strong witness to other people of the good of marriage – and in you – they witness the image of Christ in union with His bride, the Church.

"By matrimony the souls of the contracting parties are joined and knit together more directly and more intimately than their bodies, and that not by any passing affection of sense or spirit, but by a deliberate and firm act of the will, and from this union of souls by God's decree, a sacred and inviolable bond arises." – Fr. Eugene Boylan
