Heavenly Father, we thank you for the gift of Your Son Jesus Christ, who is truly present in the Eucharist. In our day, Many Catholics either do not know or do not believe that the bread and wine become Your Son Jesus, truly present to us in His Body, Blood, Soul and in His Divinity. We pray that there may be a reawakening to Christ's presence in the Eucharist, as He dwells, truly present, in all the Tabernacles throughout the world. We ask these prayers through Christ our Lord. Amen

The Catholic Church has five precepts. The obligatory character of these positive laws is meant to guarantee to the faithful the very necessary minimum in the spirit of prayer and moral effort, in the growth in love of God and neighbor. The five Precepts of the Church are:

- 1) Catholics attend Mass on Sundays (or the vigil on Saturday evenings) and holy days of obligation.
- 2) Catholics confess our sins at least once a year through the sacrament of reconciliation
- 3) Catholics receive our Creator in Holy Communion at least once during the Easter season
- 4) Catholics observe the prescribed days of fasting and abstinence. We fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. We abstain from meat on the Fridays of Lent, and do some penance each Friday of the year.
- 5) Catholics provide for the material needs of the Church, each according to his/her ability.

5 REASONS YOUR CHILD SHOULD BE AN ALTAR SERVER

Written by Angie Kauffman from Real Life at Home <https://www.reallifeathome.com/5-reasons-your-child-should-be-an-altar-server/>

1. You're More Likely to Get to Mass or Church Services on Time.

Okay, so maybe this isn't the holiest reason for having your child be an altar server. But, let's be real - it's a reason. It can mean easier parking, less stress, and some time to have quiet prayer before Mass starts. So, while it might not seem like a particularly holy reason on the surface, not needing to silently admonish people in the parking lot and having more time for prayer beforehand seems pretty holy to me.

2. Altar Servers are Actively Involved During the Mass.

Yes, of course, children should be actively involved in the pews singing, saying all of the prayers, and doing all of the appropriate standing, sitting, and kneeling. However, having the opportunity to serve during a church service or Mass means a different type of involvement. When I was growing up, it was a level of involvement that I loved. I still did all of the same types of things I would have been doing in the pew, but I was able to do even more. Being involved in that way made me feel a special closeness to what was happening. Serving during a church service or Mass can be a gift to a child, not an obligation.

3. Being an Altar Server Means Hands-on Learning

By serving during church services or the Mass, children have so many hands-on learning opportunities. It's a wonderful way for them to learn the names of objects used during Mass, vestment pieces, and other church-related terms. Will it make your child holier that they know terms like ambo or thurible? Maybe not. But, it might make them have a better understanding and appreciation for what is going on during the service or Mass, and that's a pretty wonderful benefit.

4. Being an Altar Server May Encourage Future Religious Vocations.

Sure, your child may not go on to a religious vocation in the future. Being an altar server may give them a chance to explore the idea though. In a 2013 study of seminarians by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, they found that 67% of the respondents said they had been altar servers in the past.. Even if a religious vocation isn't in your child's future, being an altar server in their youth may encourage them to seek out roles in the Mass in their future by doing things like being a reader or an Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion.

5. Being an Altar Server is a Chance to Meet Others from the Parish.

Serving at church is a wonderful opportunity to get to know other parishioners. Some of my closest friends at church when I was a teenager were the other teens that I regularly served with. Being involved with things like youth group and altar serving with them solidified our friendships.
