THIS AND THAT

Some years ago an older person was selling flowers on a busy downtown corner. She was dressed shabbily, moved slowly, but she had a wide smile. It was Easter Sunday. A man stopped to buy a flower from her out of kindness. He commented to her that she had a beautiful smile. She answered, "Everything is beautiful. How can you not smile?" The customer was struck by her statement. "What do you mean?" he said. The older lady replied, "When Jesus died on Good Friday...that was the worst day ever. But three days later, it's Easter, the best of days! Here's a lesson to learn, my friend. When troubles come your way, wait three days. The good Lord will make everything right again."

Happy Easter! The good Lord will make everything right again. May we have strong minds, great hearts, true faith, and hands willing to work His way.

May God bless us all with health, peace, and joy,
Fr. Ted
